In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the terms of this offer including the merits and risks involved. Any potential investor in, and subscriber of, the Equity Shares should also pay particular attention to the fact that we are governed in India by a legal and regulatory environment in which some material respects may be different from that which prevails in other countries. The risks and uncertainties described in this section are not the only risks and uncertainties we currently face. Additional risks and uncertainties not known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also have an adverse effect on our business. If any of the following risks, or other risks that are not currently known or are now deemed immaterial, actually occur, our business, results of operations and financial condition could suffer, the price of our Equity Shares could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. Additionally, our business operations could also be affected by additional factors that are not presently known to us or that we currently consider as immaterial to our operations.

Unless otherwise stated in the relevant risk factors set forth below, we are not in a position to specify or quantify the financial or other implications of any of the risks mentioned herein. To obtain a complete understanding, you should read this section in conjunction with the chapters titled “Our Business” beginning on page 117, “Our Industry” beginning on page 101 and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” beginning on page 222 respectively, of this Prospectus as well as other financial information contained herein.

The following factors have been considered for determining the materiality of Risk Factors:

- Some events may not be material individually but may be found material collectively;
- Some events may have material impact qualitatively instead of quantitatively;
- Some events may not be material at present but may have material impact in future.

The financial and other related implications of risks concerned, wherever quantifiable, have been disclosed in the risk factors mentioned below. However, there are risk factors where the impact may not be quantifiable and hence the same has not been disclosed in such risk factors. Unless otherwise stated, the financial information of the Company used in this section is derived from our financial statements under Indian GAAP, as restated in this Prospectus. Unless otherwise stated, we are not in a position to specify or quantify the financial or other risks mentioned herein. For capitalized terms used but not defined in this chapter, refer to the chapter titled “Definitions and Abbreviations” beginning on page 3 of this Prospectus. The numbering of the risk factors has been done to facilitate ease of reading and reference and does not in any manner indicate the importance of one risk factor over another.

The risk factors are classified as under for the sake of better clarity and increased understanding:

INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

A. Business Risks / Company specific Risk

- 1. *Our product is subject to frequently changing designs, patterns, customer requirements and tastes, our inability to meet such needs or preferences may affect our business.

Designs and patterns of laminates, especially textured laminates, change frequently, based on the changing customer requirements and tastes. Even, decorative paper, which is the essential raw material for manufacturing textured laminates, is also subject to changing designs and patterns. Our products thus become vulnerable to changing market demand. Inability in successfully predicting changing customer trends could lead to obsolesce in inventory of decorative and for laminated which may turned to be dead stock. Our inability on our part to understand the prevailing trends or our inability to forecast changes as per latest trends or understand the needs of our customers in this industry well in time may affect our growth prospects. Our management expertise lies in designing and styling of our products after identifying latest trends and customer requirements derived through valuable customer feedback and interaction. It is our endeavour to keep ourselves abreast with the latest trends in home décor and to introduce the designs accordingly to broad base our product portfolio and augment our business.

- 2. *Currently our Company, Group Company and Promoter are involved in certain tax related proceedings; any adverse decision in such proceedings may render us liable to liabilities and penalties and may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

There are no legal proceedings by or against our Directors.

Also, there is no assurance that in future, we, our promoters, our directors or group companies may not face legal proceedings; any adverse decision in such legal proceedings may impact our business. For further details in relation to legal proceedings involving our Company, Promoters, Directors, Group Company and Subsidiaries see the chapter titled “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments” on page 240 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

A classification of legal proceedings is mentioned below:

*N.A. = Not Applicable

3. Over dependence on imported raw materials may affect profitability

Major raw materials used for production of laminates include phenol, formaldehyde, melamine and decorative papers majority of which are purchased by us from domestic importers of such products. Raw materials like phenol, formaldehyde and melamine are petrol based and hence their prices are volatile. Over dependence on imports and unavailability of such products from domestic producers may adversely affect our profitability in case the trade relations of India with any of countries from where raw materials are imported get strained in future or the suppliers face any sort of problems due to internal issues of producing countries. Also significant exchange rate fluctuations may affect our Company's business as it may alter the costs of the imports significantly.

Decrease in the availability of raw materials which we require, or volatility in the price of these raw materials may significantly and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of our operations if we are unable to estimate and accordingly adjust the prices of our product.

4. Our operating results depend on the effectiveness of our marketing and advertising programs.

Our revenues are heavily influenced by product marketing, awareness and advertising. Our marketing and advertising programs may not be successful and we may, therefore, fail to attract new customers and retain existing customers. If our marketing and advertising programs are unsuccessful, our results of operations could be materially adversely affected.

The support of our employees is also critical for the success of our marketing programs and any new strategic initiatives we seek to undertake. While we can mandate certain strategic initiatives, we need the active support of our employees if the implementation of these initiatives is to be successful. The failure of our employees to support our marketing programs and strategic initiatives could adversely affect our ability to implement our business strategy and could materially harm our business, results of operations and financial condition.

5. If we are unable to negotiate favourable credit terms from our suppliers, our results of operations would be adversely affected.

While we have maintained a long term relationship with many of our suppliers and we have been able to negotiate favorable credit terms from them due to increased order sizes and timely payments, we cannot assure you that we shall be able to maintain such favourable credit terms in future. Although we have long term relationship with our suppliers, we do not have a formal written agreement with any of them. We get longer credit periods based on our relationship with the suppliers established over a period of time primarily because of continuity of orders placed with them, size of the order and timely payments made to suppliers.

6. Our growth and our financial results may be affected by factors influencing the demand for our products.

Our financial results are influenced by the macroeconomic factors determining the growth of the Indian economy as a whole and real estate sector in particular. The interior infrastructure sector is influenced by a growth in disposable income. A buoyant economy and rising per capita income and easy availability of housing finance drive urbanization, fuelling growth in housing and creating room for the interior infrastructure. The demand for interior infrastructure products is primarily dependent on the demand for real estate which influences the demand for laminates, decorative veneers, compact laminates and allied products. Periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India has significantly affected the real estate sector in the recent past. Any further downturn in the real estate industry and/or changes in governmental policies affecting the growth of this sector may have an adverse effect on the demand for laminates and other interior infrastructure products and the results of our operations

7. Cheap substitutes and competition from unorganised players may affect the business. Further absence of entry barriers into laminates production may attract many players from both organized and unorganized sectors which will escalate competition and resultant price pressure on the products.

The laminate industry is highly fragmented with unorganized sector forming a significant portion which leads to cheaper products entering the market. Also there are newer substitutes emerging such as plastic which is replacing laminates in its various applications. With the reduction in trade barriers, there is an increase in production of cheaper products and copying of designs which pose a competition to the existing domestic organized players. This may directly impact our Company's operations.

Further there are low entry barriers for setting up laminates manufacturing unit(s). Plant and machinery required for setting up a laminates manufacturing unit could be easily made and installed at low cost and short time. Thus, due to low investment in machinery many players from the organized as well as the un-organised sector may enter into this industry. The entry of these players may result in competition and resultant price pressure on the products.

Cheaper and substandard products are prevalent in every market segment. These products cater to a different segment of the market and do not impact our market share. However in view of our management with growing preference of the customers for branded/better quality products, there is an assured market for the products of our Company.

8. Our operations are hazardous and could expose us to the risk of liabilities, lost revenues and increased expenses. Further our product uses paper, which may not be an environment friendly produce.

Our operations are subject to various hazards associated with the production of resins such as the use, handling, processing, storage and transportation of hazardous materials, as well as accidents such as leakage or spillages of chemicals. Any mishandling of hazardous chemical and poisonous substances could also lead to fatal accidents. In addition, our employees operate heavy machinery at our manufacturing facilities and accidents may occur while operating such machinery. These hazards can cause personal injury and loss of life, severe damage to and destruction of property and equipment, environmental damage and may result in the suspension of operations and the imposition of civil and criminal liabilities. In addition, we may be subject to claims of injury from indirect exposure to hazardous materials that are incorporated into our products. Liabilities incurred as a result of these events have the potential to adversely impact our financial position. While we maintain general insurance against these liabilities, insurance proceeds may not be adequate to fully cover the substantial liabilities, lost revenues or increased expenses that we might incur. Further we use paper as raw material which may not be used considered as an environment friendly produce. This could have adverse consequences on our business model in medium to long term.

9. Inability to meet our working capital requirements may have an adverse effect on our results of operations.

Our business is working capital intensive. Major portion of our working capital is consumed towards trade receivables and inventories. Summary of our working capital position is given below:-

We have been sanctioned fund based working capital limits of Rs. 1466.87 lakhs from the existing bankers. The business is working capital intensive and involves a lot of investment in inventory as well as debtors. We intend to continue growing by reaching out to newer customers and also increasing the sales in the existing customers. All these factors may result in increase in the quantum of current assets. Our inability to maintain sufficient cash flow, credit facility and other sources of fund, in a timely manner, or at all, to meet the requirement of working capital or pay out debts, could adversely affect our financial condition and result of our operations. For further details regarding working capital requirement, please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 90 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

10. One of Our Promoter Group Company Velsons Laminate Private Limited will soon commence production of laminates and thereby causing a potential conflict of interest.

One of Our Promoter Group Company namely, Velsons Laminate Private Limited (“Velsons”) is engaged in manufacturing of laminates. Also there is no non-compete agreement entered by us with Velsons, this may result a conflict of interest with respect to business strategies of our Company.

- We have in the past, not complied with the provisions of Section 314(1) of the Companies Act, 1956 with respect to appointment of relatives of directors to an “office or place of profit.” The said appointments approved by the shareholders by passing special resolutions, need to be filed with RoC within prescribed time. If any office or place of profit is held in contravention of the provisions of Section 314 (1), the relatives of the directors shall be inter alia, deemed to have vacated his office as such, on and from the date next following the date of the general meeting of the Company and shall be liable to refund any remuneration received from the Company.

However the above mentioned offences have already been compounded by our Company.

We have appointed a whole time Company Secretary with effect from March 26, 2015 who shall look after the legal compliances of the Company and shall ensure the timely compliances in future.

12. Our Company has not been making the required filings under various regulations applicable to us in a timely manner.

Our Company is required various regulations applicable to it like Companies Act, 2013, Environment (Protection) Act, 1986, Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981, Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974, Hazardous Waste Management & Handling Rules, 2008, Gujarat Commercial Tax, Central Excise Act, 1944, Income Tax Act, 1961 etc. to make filings with various authorities constituted under the said acts some of which has not been done within the stipulated time period at some instances. Due to these delays in filings, our Company had on several occasions paid the requisite late fees. Also our Company has filed some forms incorrectly. While this could be attributed technical lapses and human errors, our Company has now appointed a whole time company secretary and is in the process of setting up a system to ensure that requisite filings are done appropriately with the requisite timeline.

13. We rely significantly on our Dealers/Distributors and Agents network in market for sale of our products.

We sell our products in market through our network of dealers and distributors. Furthermore, our business growth in open markets depends on our ability to attract additional dealerships to our distribution network. While we believe that we have good relations with our dealers but there is no assurance that our current dealers will continue to do business with us or that we can continue to appoint additional dealers in our network. If we do not succeed in maintaining the stability of our dealership network, our market share may decline, materially affecting our results of operations and financial condition.

14. Our Top 10 distributors/dealers contribute more than 56.06% of our gross revenues for the period ending March 31, 2017. Any loss of business from one or more of them may adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

Our Top 10 distributors contribute more than 56.06% of our revenues for the period ending March 31, 2017. Any decline in our quality standards, growing competition and any change in the demand for our quality standards, growing competition and any change in the demand for our services by these customers may adversely affect our ability to retain them. We cannot assure that we shall generate the same quantum of business, or any business at all, from these customers, and loss of business from one or more of them may adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

However, the composition and revenue generated from these customers might change as we continue to add new customers in normal course of business. Our Company and our management have been able to maintain and strengthen these business relationships over a period of time. We believe that we may not foresee substantial challenges in maintaining our business relationship with them or finding new customers.

15. We have, in the last twelve months, issued Equity Shares at prices that may be lower than the Issue Price.

We have in the last twelve months issued Equity Shares at prices that may be lower than the Issue Price as under:

Date of Allotment / Transfer	Number of Equity Shares	Face Value (Rs.)	Issue Price (Rs.)	Nature of Consideration	Reasons for allotment	Allottees
------------------------------	-------------------------	------------------	-------------------	-------------------------	-----------------------	-----------

Date of Allotment / Transfer	Number of Equity Shares	Face Value (Rs.)	Issue Price (Rs.)	Nature of Consideration	Reasons for allotment	Allottees
February 7, 2017	39,74,000	10	NA	Other than cash	Bonus Issue	To all shareholders as per record date February 06, 2017

For further details regarding such issuances, please refer to the section “Capital Structure - Share Capital History of our Company” beginning on page 69 of the Red Herring Prospectus

16. Our operations are significantly dependent on the timely procurement of raw materials and any delay in such procurement or procurement on commercially unviable terms may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

We are engaged in the business of manufacturing laminates and Doorskin. We place orders for the raw materials on a monthly basis with the quantity of our orders dependent on internal estimates. In the event our estimates prove to be incorrect on grounds of higher purchase orders than expected in a particular month or quarter, we may be unable to procure additional raw material from our suppliers. However, in the event of such estimation of the requirements of raw material in future, we are unable to assure you that we shall be able to procure raw materials from other sources on commercially viable terms, if at all and occurrence of the same shall not affect our ability to deliver our products to our customers in time. In the event of any material upswing of crude oil prices globally or locally the price of the raw materials may increase which would consequently increase the cost of manufacture of our products. In the event we are unable to pass on this cost to our customers, our margins and results of operations may be adversely affected.

17. Our Company has not entered into any supply agreement for the major raw materials required for manufacturing of our products and are exposed to risks relating to fluctuations in commodity prices and shortage of raw material.

Raw material costs are dependent on commodity prices, which are subject to fluctuations. There can be no assurance that strong demand, capacity limitations or other problems experienced by our suppliers will not result in occasional shortages or delays in their supply of raw materials. If we experience a significant or prolonged shortage of raw materials from any of our suppliers and we cannot procure the raw materials from other sources, we would be unable to meet our production schedules in a timely fashion, which would adversely affect our sales, margins and customer relations. In the absence of such supply agreements, we cannot assure that a particular supplier will continue to supply raw materials to us in the future. In the event the prices of such raw materials were to rise substantially or if imports were to be restricted in any manner, we may find it difficult to make alternative arrangements for supplies of our raw materials, on the terms acceptable to us, which could materially affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

18. Our historical revenues have been significantly dependent on few customers. We have not entered into any long term or definitive agreements with our customers. If our customers choose not to source their requirements from us, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

A significant proportion of our revenues have historically been derived from a limited number of customers. Over the last three financial years, our top ten and five customers contributed 56.06% and 39.76% of our total revenue from operations for financial year 2016-17 respectively. The loss of orders from any of these significant customers will result in a considerable reduction in our revenue. Our business from customers is dependent on our continuing relationship with such customers, the quality of our products, competitive pricing and our ability to timely deliver on their orders, and there can be no assurance that such customers will continue to do business with us in the future on commercially acceptable terms or at all. If our customers do not continue to purchase products from us, or reduce the volume of products purchased from us, our business prospects, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected. Significant dependence on them may increase the potential volatility of our results of operations and exposure to individual contract risks. In the event that any of these customers discontinue purchase of products from us, our results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected. We have not entered into any long term or definitive agreements with our customers, and instead rely on purchase orders to govern the volume, pricing and other terms of sales of our products. However, such orders may be amended or cancelled prior to finalization, and should such an amendment or cancellation take place, we may be unable to seek compensation for any surplus un purchased products that we manufacture. Our customers do not, typically, place firm purchase orders until a short time before the products are required from us as a result of which, we do not hold a significant order book at any time, making it difficult for us to forecast revenue, production or sales. Consequently, there is no commitment on the part of the customer to continue to source their requirements from us, and as a result, our sales from period to period may fluctuate significantly as a result of changes in our customers' vendor preferences. Any failure to meet our customers' expectations could result in cancellation of orders. There are also a number of factors other than our performance that are beyond our control and that could cause the loss of a customer. Customers may demand price reductions, set-off any payment obligations, require indemnification for themselves or their affiliates or replace their existing products with alternative products, any of which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

19. We are highly dependent on our Top 5 and Top 10 suppliers for uninterrupted supply of raw-materials. Any disruption in supply of raw materials from these suppliers will adversely affect our operations.

There are a very few suppliers from whom we procure raw materials like phenol, formaldehyde and melamine and they may allocate their resources to service other clients ahead of us. While we believe that we could find additional suppliers to supply these raw materials, any failure of our suppliers to deliver these raw materials in the necessary quantities or to adhere to delivery schedules or specified quality standards and technical specifications would adversely affect our production processes and our ability to deliver orders on time and at the desired level of quality. As a result, we may lose customers and incur contractual penalties or liabilities for failure to perform contracts, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. We are highly dependent on the suppliers of raw material for our products. We procure our raw materials from various domestic and international suppliers depending upon the price and quality of raw materials. However, our Top 5 and top 10 suppliers contribute significantly to supply of raw materials. While our company believe that we would not face difficulties in finding additional suppliers of raw materials, any disruption of supply of raw materials from these suppliers or our procurement of raw materials at terms not favourable to us can adversely affect our operations and financial cost. The contributions of our top 5 suppliers to our total supplies are as follows:

Particulars	For the year ended March 31, 2017
% wise Top 5 of Total Purchase	37.46%
% wise Top 10 of Total Purchase	57.49%

20. Any inability on our part to maintain quality standards could adversely impact our business, results of operations and financial conditions. Quality control is a vital element for our sector.

Our business is dependent on the trust our customers have in the quality of our products. The products we manufacture must meet our customers' quality standards. Although we have put in place quality control procedures, we cannot assure that our products will always be able to satisfy our customers' quality standards. Any negative publicity regarding our Company, or products, including those arising from a drop in quality of our products from our vendors, or any other unforeseen events could adversely affect our reputation, our operations and our results from operations.

21. Any inability on our part to keep pace with the technological developments could adversely impact our business, results of operations and financial conditions.

Any rapid change in our customers' expectation on account of changes in technology or introduction of new products or for any other reason and failure on our part to meet their expectation could adversely affect our business, result of operations and financial condition. We believe that we have always expanded our capacities based on latest technology to cater to the growing demand of our customers. Our failure to anticipate or to respond adequately to changing technical, market demands and/or client requirements could adversely affect our business and financial results.

22. We generated a majority of our sales in Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Gujarat ,Delhi, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh and Rajasthan and any adverse developments affecting our operations in these states could have an adverse impact on our revenue and results of operations.

For the year ended March 31, 2017, our sales in Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Gujarat ,Delhi, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh and Rajasthan together contributed 82.22% of our total revenue as mentioned below:

State	Revenue from State (Rs. In lakhs)	% of Total Revenue
Gujarat	1511.83	25.07%
Maharashtra	1444.26	23.95%
Karnataka	623.92	10.35%
Madhya Pradesh	431.10	7.15%
Delhi	378.04	6.27%
Andhra Pradesh	326.66	5.42%
Rajasthan	242.11	4.01%
Total	4957.92	82.22%

We may continue to expand our sales in these states. Existing and potential competitors to our business may increase their focus on these states, which could reduce our market share. For example, our competitors may intensify their efforts in these states to capture a larger market share. The concentration of our operations in these states heightens our exposure to adverse developments related to competition, as well as economic, political, demographic and other changes, which may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations. Any adverse development that affects the performance of the sales in these states could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

23. Our growth strategy to expand into new geographic areas poses risks. We may not be able to successfully manage some or all of such risks, which may have a material adverse effect on our revenues, profits and financial condition.

Our operations have been geographically concentrated in the States of Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Gujarat ,Delhi, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh and Rajasthan . Our business is therefore significantly dependent on the general economic condition and activity in the State in which we operate along with the Central, State and Local Government policies relating to Laminate and Mica Industry. We may expand geographically, and may not gain acceptance or be able to take advantage of any expansion opportunities outside our current markets. This may place us at a competitive disadvantage and limit our growth opportunities. We may face additional risks if we undertake operations in other geographic areas in which we do not possess the same level of familiarity as competitors. If we undertake operations of different product than those currently is; we may be affected by various factors, including but not limited to:

- Adjusting our products to different geographic areas;
- Obtaining the necessary materials and labour in sufficient amounts and on acceptable terms;
- Obtaining necessary Government and other approvals in time or at all;

- Failure to realize expected synergies and cost savings;
- Attracting potential customers in a market in which we do not have significant experience; and
- Cost of hiring new employees and absorbing increased costs.

By expanding into new geographical regions, we may be exposed to significant liability and could lose some or all of our investment in such regions, as a result of which our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected

24. Our success depends largely upon the services of our Directors and other Key Managerial Personnel and our ability to attract and retain them. Demand for Key Managerial Personnel in the industry is intense and our inability to attract and retain Key Managerial Personnel may affect the operations of our Company.

Our Directors have built relations with clients and other persons who are connected with us. We do not have professional designer for design the laminates and same is being looked after by Rameshbhai Patel, whole time director of our Company. Our success is substantially dependent on the expertise and services of our Directors and our Key Managerial Personnel. They provide expertise which enables us to make well informed decisions in relation to our business and our future prospects. Our future performance will depend upon the continued services of these persons. Demand for Key Managerial Personnel in the industry is intense. Our manufacturing unit is on rent from one of Director Monghiben Patel, she may be interested to the extent of rent to be received. For further information, see “Capital Structure” and “Our Management” and “Related Party Transactions” beginning on pages 69, 149 and 170 , respectively, of this Red Herring Prospectus. We cannot assure that we will be able to retain any or all, or that our succession planning will help to replace, the key members of our management. The loss of the services of such key members of our management team and the failure of any succession plans to replace such key members could have an adverse effect on our business and the results of our operations.

25. Our business is dependent on our manufacturing facilities, all of which are geographically located in one area. Any loss or shutdown of operations at our manufacturing facilities in Village Zak, District Gandhinagar may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Our only manufacturing facility is located at Village Zak, District Gandhinagar. As a result, if there is any local unrest, natural disaster or breakdown of services and utilities in Zak, it may adversely affect our business. Further our manufacturing activities are subject to operating risks which include inter-alia breakdown or failure of power supply, equipment, obsolescence, labour disputes, strikes, lock-outs, continued availability of services of our external contractors, earthquakes and other natural disasters, industrial accidents etc. We have not experienced any significant disruptions in operations in the past. However their occurrence cannot be ruled out. If and when they occur they could have material adverse effect on our business, results of operations or financial condition.

26. The shortage or non-availability of power facilities may adversely affect our manufacturing processes and have an adverse impact on our results of operations and financial condition.

Our manufacturing processes requires substantial amount of power facilities. The quantum and nature of power requirements of our industry and Company is such that it cannot be supplemented/ augmented by alternative/ independent sources of power supply since it involve significant capital expenditure and per unit cost of electricity produced is very high in view of increasing oil prices and other constraints. We are mainly dependent on State Government for meeting our electricity requirements. Any defaults or non compliance of the conditions may render us liable for termination of the agreement or any future changes in the terms of the agreement may lead to increased costs, thereby affecting the profitability. Further, since we are majorly dependent on third party power supply; there may be factors beyond our control affecting the supply of power.

Any disruption / non availability of power shall directly affect our production which in turn shall have an impact on profitability and turnover of our Company

27. The shortage or non-availability of water facilities may adversely affect our manufacturing processes and have an adverse impact on our results of operations and financial condition.

Our manufacturing process requires substantial amount of water, particularly for mixing and cooling process. Currently, our Company meets its water requirements from bore wells and tube wells, installed in the manufacturing facility. We have not made any alternate arrangements for supply of water for our manufacturing facilities. Thus any unfavourable changes or modifications in the said agreement or termination of the agreement may increase our cost of operations and adversely affect results of our operations.

28. Land on which our existing manufacturing facility is located is not owned by us. In the event, we are unable to renew the rent/leave and license agreements, or if such agreements are terminated, we may suffer a disruption in our operations.

Land on which our manufacturing unit at Zak, Ahmedabad is located, has been taken by us on rent/leave and license from two lands owner one of whom is owned by our Director Monghiben Patel. These agreements are renewable on mutually agreed terms. Upon completion of tenure of agreements, we are required to return the said premises to the lessor/licensor, unless renewed.

For details on properties taken on lease/rent by us please refer to the heading titled “Land & Property” in chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on page 117 of this Prospectus.

29. Property at which our Registered Office is located is registered in the name of our former Director Prahladbhai Patel, however the consideration for the said properties have been paid by our Company.

Our Company has purchased property at which our registered located from Raghav Infrastructure. Due to inadvertence, the sale deed in respect of the said property has been registered in the name of our former Director Prahladbhai Patel. However, our Company holds all free and irrevocable rights including the beneficial right, title and interest in the said Property. Our former director Prahladbhai Patel will continue to do such acts, deeds, matters and things as are necessary with respect to the said Properties, for and on behalf of the Company, in accordance with the directions of the Board of Directors and subject to applicable laws. In this regard Prahladbhai Patel has executed a Declaration-cum-Undertaking dated August 31, 2017.

30. We are subject to restrictive covenants in secured debt facility provided to us by our lender.

We have entered into agreements for availing debt facilities from lenders. Certain covenants in these agreements require us to obtain approval/permission from our lenders in certain conditions. In the event of default or the breach of certain covenants, our lender has the option to make the entire outstanding amount payable immediately. There can be no assurance that we will be able to comply with these financial or other covenants or that we will be able to obtain consents necessary to take the actions that we believe are required to operate and grow our business.

For further details in this regard, including approvals obtained from our lender for this Issue, please refer chapter titled “Financial Indebtness” beginning on page 234 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

31. Our Company has negative operating, investing and financing cash flow in the past years details of which are given below: Sustained negative cash flow could impact our growth and business.

Cash flow of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from operations to meet capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans and make new investments without raising finance from external resources.

(Rs. In Lakhs)

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2017	For the year ended on
		2017	2016	2015	2014	2013

Net Cash Flow from/(used in) Financing Activities	63.10	81.43	287.37	(235.16)	(52.66)	414.45

Any operating losses or negative cash flows could adversely affect our results of operations and financial conditions. Our Company is a new company and is in initial phases of its life cycle where the operating & investing cash flows are generally negative due to investments in fixed assets and working capital.

32. We have taken guarantees from Promoters, Directors as well as others in relation to debt facilities provided to us.

We have taken guarantees from Promoters, Directors as well as others in relation to all our secured debt facilities availed from our Bankers. In an event any of these persons withdraw or terminate its/their guarantee/s, the lender for such facilities may ask for alternate guarantee/s, repayment of amounts outstanding under such facilities, or even terminate such facilities. We may not be successful in procuring guarantee/s satisfactory to the lender and as a result may need to repay outstanding amounts under such facilities or seek additional sources of capital, which could adversely affect our financial condition. For more information please see the chapter titled "Financial Indebtedness" beginning on page 234 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

33. We have not applied for certain statutory and regulatory approvals, registrations and licenses. Further, our inability to renew or maintain our statutory and regulatory permits and approvals required to operate our business would adversely affect our operations and profitability.

Additionally, we need to apply for renewal of approvals which expire, from time to time, as and when required in the ordinary course. Also, we were a private limited company in the name of "Ambition Mica Private Limited" which was carrying business of manufacturers of mid segment decorative laminates and door skins. As per Companies Act, 1956/2013, a private limited company can be converted into public limited company. After complying with the relevant procedure of Companies Act, 1956/2013, the said private limited company was converted into a public limited company in the year 2015. After conversion there was change of name of the company from "Ambition Mica Private Limited" to "Ambition Mica Limited". We shall be taking necessary steps for transferring the approvals in new name of our company. In case we fail to transfer/obtain the same in name of the company same may adversely affect our business or we may not be able to carry our business Approvals like TAN allotment letter and Consent to establish the Unit for a product at a particular production capacity issued by Gujarat Pollution Control Board are currently not traceable by the company. The company has also applied for change of name of these approvals. In case of delay or failure to obtain the same, it could affect our business operations. Any failure to renew the approvals that have expired, or to apply for and obtain the required approvals, licences, registrations or permits, or any suspension or revocation of any of the approvals, licences, registrations and permits that have been or may be issued to us, could result in delaying the operations of our business, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. For more information, see chapter "Government and Other Statutory Approvals" on page 248 of this Prospectus/Red Herring Prospectus.

34. We depend on certain brand names and our corporate name and logo that we may not be able to protect and/or maintain.

Our ability to market and sell our products depends upon the recognition of our brand names and associated consumer goodwill. Currently, we do not have registered trademarks for our own corporate name and logo under the Trade Marks Act, 1999. Consequently, we do not enjoy the statutory protections accorded to registered trademarks in India for the corporate name and logo of our company. In the absence of such registrations, competitors and other companies may challenge the validity or scope of our intellectual property right over our corporate name or logo. As a result, we may be required to invest significant resources in developing new brands or names, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. However, the Company has certain trademarks of its brands in its own name and certain trademarks to which the Company is assignee. See “Government and other Statutory Approvals” on page 248 of this Draft Prospectus/Red Herring Prospectus for further details for the same. In addition to same, our failure to comply with existing or increased regulations, or the introduction of changes to existing regulations, could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. We cannot assure you that the approvals, licences, registrations and permits issued to us would not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. The material approvals, licences or permits required for our business include trade licence, excise and tax laws, environment laws, as applicable. See “Government and other Statutory Approvals” on page 248 of this Red Herring Prospectus for further details on the required material approvals for the operation of our business.

35. Our Company has a substantial level of sundry debtors and high debtor days.

As of March 31, 2017 the aggregate amount owed to the Company by its debtors was Rs 2352.23 Lakhs and debtors month i.e. (Trade receivables / Annual sales) x 365 days) was around 5.68 months as per restated financials. Customer concentration coupled with high debt increase the credit risk of our business. General economic conditions may adversely affect the financial conditions of our debtors, and may result in defaults by some of these debtors. In the event of defaults by our debtors, we may suffer a liquidity shortfall and incur additional costs, including legal expenses, in recovering the sums due and payable to us. If we are unable to recover the sums due and payable to us, or if the recoveries made by us are significantly lower than the aggregate amount owed to us, it may have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition or results of operations.

In view of our management, generally the average debtors period in the industry which we operate is quite high. However, the time to service the contract has resulted in high debtor days in our Company. Moreover, our Company did not have bad debts/ unrealised debtors in recent past.

36. Our industry is labour intensive and our business operations may be materially adversely affected by strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands by our employees or those of our suppliers.

We believe that our industry faces competitive pressures in recruiting and retaining skilled and unskilled labour. Our industry being labour intensive is highly dependent on labour force for carrying out its manufacturing operations. Shortage of skilled/unskilled personnel or work stoppages caused by disagreements with employees could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations. Our Company has taken efforts to maintain a lower attrition among the labourers by facilitating them with various in-house facilities and benefits to our employees.

India has stringent labour legislation that protects the interests of workers, including legislation that sets forth detailed procedures for the establishment of unions, dispute resolution and employee removal and legislation that imposes certain financial obligations on employers upon retrenchment. We are also subject to laws and regulations governing relationships with employees, in such areas as minimum wage and maximum working hours, overtime, working conditions, hiring and terminating of employees and work permits. Although our employees are not currently unionized, there can be no assurance that they will not unionize in the future. If our employees unionize, it may become difficult for us to maintain flexible labour policies, and we may face the threat of labour unrest, work stoppages and diversion of our management's attention due to union intervention, which may have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

37. We could become liable to customers, suffer adverse publicity and incur substantial costs as a result of defects in our products, which in turn could adversely affect the value of our brand, and our sales could be diminished if we are associated with negative publicity.

Any failure or defect in our products could result in a claim against us for damages, regardless of our responsibility for such a failure or defect. However, we ensure that our products are of the requisite quality and strength. Although we attempt to maintain quality standards, we cannot assure that all our products would be of uniform quality, which in turn could adversely affect the value of our brand, and our sales could be diminished if we are associated with negative publicity.

Also, our business is dependent on the trust our customers have in the quality of our products. Any negative publicity regarding our company, brand, or products, including those arising from a drop in quality of merchandise from our vendors, mishaps resulting from the use of our products, or any other unforeseen events could affect our reputation and our results from operations.

38. Our operations may be adversely affected in case of industrial accidents at any of our production facilities.

Usage of heavy machinery, handling of materials by labour during production process or otherwise, lifting of materials by humans, cranes, heating processes of the furnace etc. may result in accidents, which could cause injury to our labour, employees, other persons on the site and could also damage our properties thereby affecting our operations. Though our plants and machinery and personnel are covered under insurance, occurrence of accidents could hamper our production and consequently affect our profitability.

39. Revenues can be adversely affected if our Company would unable to maintain distribution network

Our company sells our products with the help of distribution network of various dealers/retailers/distributors. Our company has around 26 distributors and 4799 dealers across India. The distribution network sells our products to end users. Our inability to maintain our existing distribution network or to expand it further as per the requirement of our proposed increased capacities, can adversely affect our revenues. In case, if we are not able to market our manufactured products, it may affect our operations and profitability adversely.

40. Within the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titled 'Objects of the Issue' beginning on page 90 of this Red Herring Prospectus, our Company's management will have flexibility in applying the proceeds of this Issue. The fund requirement and deployment mentioned in the Objects of the Issue have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution.

We intend to use Issue proceeds towards meet long term working capital requirement, issue expenses and general corporate purpose. We intend to deploy the Net Issue Proceeds in FY 2017-2018 and such deployment is based on certain assumptions and strategy which our Company believes to implement in future. The funds raised from the fresh Issue may remain idle on account of change in assumptions, market conditions, strategy of our Company, etc. For further details on the use of the Issue Proceeds, please refer chapter titled "Objects of the Issue" beginning on page 90 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

The deployment of funds for the purposes described above is at the discretion of our Company's Board of Directors. The fund requirement and deployment is based on internal management estimates and has not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. Accordingly, within the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titled 'Objects of the Issue' beginning on page 90 of this Red Herring Prospectus, the Management will have significant flexibility in applying the proceeds received by our Company from the Issue. Our Board of Directors will monitor the utilization of the proceeds of this Issue.

41. Our dependency to a certain extent on contract labour for the performance of some of our operations may adversely affect our business.

Our Company rely on certain labour contractors who provide us on-site labour for performance of some of our operations. In case of failure in complying with statutory obligations by the labour contractors the same has to be fulfilled by our Company which may eventually result in an increase in our wage cost and may affect our profitability.

42. Revenues can be adversely affected if our Company would unable to maintain distribution network

Our company sells our products with the help of distribution network of various dealers/retailers/distributors. Our company has around 26 distributors across India. The distribution network sells our products to end users. Our inability to maintain our existing distribution network or to expand it further as per the requirement of our proposed increased capacities, can adversely affect our revenues. In case, if we are not able to market our manufactured products, it may affect our operations and profitability adversely.

43. Failure to manage our inventory could have an adverse effect on our net sales, profitability, cash flow and liquidity.

The results of operations of our business are dependent on our ability to effectively manage our inventory and stocks. To effectively manage our inventory, we must be able to accurately estimate customer demand and supply requirements and manufacture inventory accordingly. If our management has misjudged expected customer demand it could adversely impact the results by causing either a shortage of products or an accumulation of excess inventory.

44. Our Company is dependent on third party transportation providers for the supply of raw materials and delivery of products.

Our Company uses services of third party transportation providers for supply of raw materials as well as delivery of finished products. Our Company relies on fleet of trucks. In the event of non availability of fleet of trucks, due to strike or any other reason may have an adverse impact on the receipt of supplies of raw material and delivery of the finished products thereby adversely affecting our operations.

45. Our Company has availed unsecured loans in past and may avail in future loans from related parties which were repayable on demand.

We have availed in past unsecured loans from related parties. For further details in relation to the unsecured loans, please refer the chapter “Financial Statements as Restated” beginning on page 172 of this Red Herring Prospectus. Unsecured loans may be called at any time by these Parties. In the event these loans are required to be re-paid on a short notice, our Company may have to arrange for additional funds which may impact our financials. Currently there are no outstanding loans from related parties.

46. Some of our Group Entities have incurred losses in financial year ended March 31, 2013 and one of the Group Companies has a Negative Networth.

One of our promoter Group Entities has incurred losses in the F.Y. 2013-14 and has a Negative Networth. For further details regarding the performance of our Group Entities, please refer to Chapter titled “Our Group Entities” on page 167 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

47. Our promoter and directors may have interest in our Company, other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or remuneration

Our promoter and directors may be deemed to be interested to the extent of the Equity Shares held, loans advanced by them and rent received by them or their relatives and benefits deriving from their directorship in our Company. For further details, please refer to the chapters titled “Our Business”,

“Our Promoter and Promoter Group” and “Related Party Transactions” beginning on page 117, 163 and 170 respectively of this Red Herring Prospectus

48. Our ability to pay dividends will depend upon future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditures and other factors.

The Company has not proposed any dividend till date. The amount of our future dividend payments, if any, will depend upon various factors such as our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditures and other factors. There can be no assurance that we shall have distributable funds or that we will declare dividends in the future. Additionally, the terms of any financing we obtain in the future, may contain restrictive covenants which may also affect some of the rights of our shareholders, including the payment of the dividend.

49. We could be harmed by employee misconduct or errors that are difficult to detect and any such incidences could adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and reputation.

Employee misconduct or errors could expose us to business risks or losses, including regulatory sanctions and cause serious harm to our reputation. There can be no assurance that we will be able to detect or deter such misconduct. Moreover, the precautions we take to prevent and detect such activity may not be effective in all cases. Our employees and agents may also commit errors that could subject us to claims and proceedings for alleged negligence, as well as regulatory actions on account of which our business, financial condition, results of operations and goodwill could be adversely affected.

50. We may not be successful in implementing our business strategies.

The success of our business depends substantially on our ability to implement our business strategies effectively. Even though we have successfully executed our business strategies in the past, there is no guarantee that we can implement the same on time and within the estimated budget going forward, or that we will be able to meet the expectations of our targeted clients. Changes in regulations applicable to us may also make it difficult to implement our business strategies. Failure to implement our business strategies would have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

51. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future.

Our Company has entered into various transactions with our Promoters, Promoter Group, Directors and their Relatives. While we believe that all such transactions are conducted on arms length basis, there can be no assurance that we could not have achieved more favorable terms had such transactions were not entered into with related parties. Furthermore, it is likely that we will enter into related party transactions in future. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operation. For details on the transactions entered by us, please refer to chapter “Related Party Transactions” beginning on page 170 of the Red Herring Prospectus.

52. Our Promoters and members of the Promoter Group will continue jointly to retain majority control over our Company after the Issue, which will allow them to determine the outcome of matters submitted to shareholders for approval.

After completion of the Issue, our Promoters and Promoters Group will collectively own 72.97 % of the Equity Shares. As a result, our Promoters together with the members of the Promoter Group will be able to exercise a significant degree of influence over us and will be able to control the outcome of any proposal that can be approved by a majority shareholder vote, including, the election of members to our Board, in accordance with the Companies Act and our Articles of Association. Such a concentration of ownership may also have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring a change in control of our Company.

In addition, our Promoters will continue to have the ability to cause us to take actions that are not in, or may conflict with, our interests or the interests of some or all of our creditors or minority shareholders, and we cannot assure you that such actions will not have an adverse effect on our future financial performance or the price of our equity shares.

53. Compliance with, and changes in, safety, health and environmental laws and regulations may adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

Due to the nature of the our business, we expect to be or continue to be subject to extensive and increasingly stringent environmental, health and safety laws and regulations and various labor, workplace and related laws and regulations. We are also subject to environmental laws and regulations, including but not limited to:

- Environment (Protection) Act, 1986
- Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981
- Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974
- Hazardous Waste Management & Handling Rules, 2008
- other regulations promulgated by the Ministry of Environment and Forests and the Pollution Control Boards of the state of Gujarat which govern the discharge, emission, storage, handling and disposal of a variety of substances that may be used in or result from the operations of our business.

The scope and extent of new environmental regulations, including their effect on our operations, cannot be predicted and hence the costs and management time required to comply with these requirements could be significant. Amendments to such statutes may impose additional provisions to be followed by our Company and accordingly the Company needs to incur clean-up and remediation costs, as well as damages, payment of fines or other penalties, closure of production facilities for non-compliance, other liabilities and related litigation, could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

54. Our insurance policies do not cover all risks, specifically risks like product defect/liability risk, loss of profits and workmen's compensation etc. In the event of the occurrence of such events, our insurance coverage may not adequately protect us against possible risk of loss.

While we believe that we maintain insurance coverage in adequate amounts consistent with size of our business, our insurance policies do not cover all risks, specifically risks like product defect/liability risk, loss of profits and are subject to exclusions and deductibles. There can be no assurance that our insurance policies will be adequate to cover the losses in respect of which the insurance has been availed. If we suffer a significant uninsured loss or if insurance claim in respect of the subject-matter of insurance is not accepted or any insured loss suffered by us significantly exceeds our insurance coverage, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

For details of insurance availed by us please refer heading titled 'insurance' in the chapter 'Our Business' beginning on page 117 of the Red Herring Prospectus.

55. Some of our rent/leave and license agreements may have certain irregularities.

Some of the agreements entered into by us with respect to our manufacturing facilities and other leasehold/leave and license premises may not be adequately stamped and registered. The effect of inadequate stamping is that the document is not admissible as evidence in legal proceedings and parties to that agreement may not be able to legally enforce the same, except after paying a penalty for inadequate stamping. The effect of non-registration, in certain cases, is to make the document inadmissible in legal proceedings. Any potential dispute vis-à-vis the said premises and our non-compliance of local laws relating to stamp duty and registration may adversely impact the continuance of our activity from such premises.

56. Our future funds requirements, in the form of fresh issue of capital or securities and/or loans taken by us, may be prejudicial to the interest of the shareholders depending upon the terms on which they are eventually raised.

We may require additional capital from time to time depending on our business needs. Any fresh issue of shares or convertible securities would dilute the shareholding of the existing shareholders and such issuance may be done on terms and conditions, which may not be favourable to the then existing shareholders. If such funds are raised in the form of loans or debt, then it may substantially increase our interest burden and decrease our cash flows, thus prejudicially affecting our profitability and ability to pay dividends to our shareholders.

57. Any change in interest rates and banking policies may have an adverse impact on our Company's profitability.

The Company is dependent on bank(s) and financial institution(s) for arranging the Company's Working Capital Requirements, Term Loans, etc. Accordingly, any change in the extant banking policies or increase in interest rates may have an adverse impact on the Company's profitability.

B. Risk relating to the Issue

58. Sale of Equity Shares by our Promoter or other significant shareholder(s) may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any instance of disinvestments of equity shares by our Promoter or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sales of Equity Shares might occur.

59. There are restrictions on daily movements in the price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell, or the price at which it can sell, Equity Shares at a particular point in time.

Once listed, we would be subject to circuit breakers imposed by all stock exchanges in India, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on circuit breakers is set by the stock exchanges based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The stock exchanges do not inform us of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker in effect from time to time, and may change it without our knowledge. This circuit breaker limits the upward and downward movements in the price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, no assurance may be given regarding your ability to sell your Equity Shares or the price at which you may be able to sell your Equity Shares at any particular time.

60. After this Issue, the price of the Equity Shares may be highly volatile, or an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop.

The price of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges may fluctuate as a result of the factors, including:

- a. Volatility in the Indian and global capital market;
- b. Company's results of operations and financial performance;
- c. Performance of Company's competitors;
- d. Adverse media reports on the Company or pertaining to the Laminate Industry;
- e. Changes in our estimates of performance or recommendations by financial analysts;
- f. Significant developments in India's economic and fiscal policies;

Current valuations may not be sustainable in the future and may also not be reflective of future valuations for our industry and our Company. There has been no public market for the Equity Shares and the prices of the Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue. There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Equity Shares will develop or be sustained after this Issue or that the price at which the Equity Shares are initially traded will correspond to the price at which the Equity Shares will trade in the market subsequent to this Issue.

61. The Issue price of our Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue and the market price of our Equity Shares may decline below the issue price and you may not be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

The Issue Price of our Equity Shares has been determined by book build method. This price is based on numerous factors (For further information, please refer chapter titled “Basis for Issue Price” beginning on page 96 of this Red Herring Prospectus) and may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue. The market price of our Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Issue, and may decline below the Issue Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price. Among the factors that could affect our share price include without limitation. The following:

- Half yearly variations in the rate of growth of our financial indicators, such as earnings per share, net income and revenues;
- Changes in revenue or earnings estimates or publication of research reports by analysts;
- Speculation in the press or investment community;
- General market conditions; and
- Domestic and international economic, legal and regulatory factors unrelated to our performance.

62. You will not be able to sell immediately on Indian Stock Exchanges any of the Equity Shares you purchase in the Issue until the Issue receives appropriate trading permissions.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchange. Pursuant to Indian regulations, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading may commence. We cannot assure you that the Equity Shares will be credited to investor’s demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time periods specified in this Red Herring Prospectus. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of the Equity Shares. In accordance with section 40 of the New Companies Act, in the event that the permission of listing the Equity Shares is denied by the stock exchanges, we are required to refund all monies collected to investors.

63. There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will be listed on the SME Platform of BSE in a timely manner, or at all.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuing of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on the SME Platform of BSE. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

64. Significant differences exist between Indian GAAP and other accounting principles, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to the financial statements prepared and presented in accordance with SEBI ICDR Regulations contained in this Red Herring Prospectus.

As stated in the reports of the Auditor included in this Red Herring Prospectus on page 172, the financial statements included in this Red Herring Prospectus are based on financial information that is based on the audited financial statements that are prepared and presented in conformity with Indian GAAP and restated in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, and no attempt has been made to reconcile any of the information given in this Red Herring Prospectus to any other principles or to base it on any other standards. Indian GAAP differs from accounting principles and auditing standards with which prospective investors may be familiar in other countries, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS. Significant differences exist between Indian GAAP and U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with Indian GAAP contained in this Red Herring Prospectus. Accordingly, the degree to which the financial information included in this Red Herring Prospectus will provide meaningful information is dependent on familiarity with Indian GAAP, the Companies Act and the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian GAAP on the financial disclosures presented in this Red Herring Prospectus should accordingly be limited.

65. You may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws and regulations, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares in an Indian company are generally taxable in India. Any gain realised on the sale of shares on a stock exchange held for more than 12 months will not be subject to capital gains tax in India if the securities transaction tax ("STT") has been paid on the transaction. The STT will be levied on and collected by an Indian stock exchange on which equity shares are sold. Further, any gain realised on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India, if securities transaction tax has been paid on the transaction. Any gain realised on the sale of shares held for more than 36 months to an Indian resident, which are sold other than on a recognised stock exchange and as a result of which no STT has been paid, will be subject to long term capital gains tax in India. Further, any gain realised on the sale of equity shares held for a period of 36 months or less which are sold other than on a recognised stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, may be subject to short term capital gains tax at a relatively higher rate as compared to the transaction where STT has been paid in India.

66. The Companies Act, 2013 has effected significant changes to the existing Indian company law framework, which may subject us to higher compliance requirements and increase our compliance costs.

A majority of the provisions and rules under the Companies Act, 2013 have recently been notified and have come into effect from the date of their respective notification, resulting in the corresponding provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 ceasing to have effect. The Companies Act, 2013 has brought into effect significant changes to the Indian company law framework, such as in the provisions related to issue of capital, disclosures in Red Herring Prospectus, corporate governance norms, audit matters, related party transactions, introduction of a provision allowing the initiation of class action suits in India against companies by shareholders or depositors, a restriction on investment by an Indian company through more than two layers of subsidiary investment companies (subject to certain permitted exceptions), prohibitions on loans to directors and insider trading and restrictions on directors and key managerial personnel from engaging in forward dealing. Further, the Companies Act, 2013 imposes greater monetary and other liability on our Company and Directors for any non-compliance. To ensure compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013, we may need to allocate additional resources, which may increase our regulatory compliance costs and divert management attention.

67. Political instability or changes in the Government could adversely affect economic conditions in India generally and our business in particular.

Our business, and the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares, may be affected by interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. Elimination or substantial change of policies or the introduction of policies that negatively affect the Company's business could cause its results of operations to suffer. Any significant change in India's economic policies could disrupt business and economic conditions in India generally and the Company's business in particular.

68. Financial instability in Indian financial markets could adversely affect Our Company's results of operations and financial condition.

In this globalized world, the Indian economy and financial markets are significantly influenced by worldwide economic, financial and market conditions. Any financial turmoil, say in the United States of America, Europe, China or other emerging economies, may have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Although economic conditions differ in each country, investors' reactions to any significant developments in one country can have adverse effects on the financial and market conditions in other countries. A loss in investor confidence in the financial systems, particularly in other emerging markets, may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets. Indian financial markets have also experienced the contagion effect of the global financial turmoil. Any prolonged financial crisis may have an adverse impact on the Indian economy, thereby resulting in a material and adverse effect on our Company's business, operations, financial condition, profitability and price of its Shares. Stock exchanges in India have in the past experienced substantial fluctuations in the prices of listed securities.

69. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law that limits our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfers of shares between nonresidents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/ tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. There can be no assurance that any approval required from the RBI or any other government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

70. Global economic, political and social conditions may harm our ability to do business, increase our costs and negatively affect our stock price.

Global economic and political factors that are beyond our control, influence forecasts and directly affect performance. These factors include interest rates, rates of economic growth, fiscal and monetary policies of governments, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit availability, fluctuations in commodities markets, consumer debt levels, unemployment trends and other matters that influence consumer confidence, spending and tourism. Increasing volatility in financial markets may cause these factors to change with a greater degree of frequency and magnitude, which may negatively affect our stock prices.

71. Terrorist attacks, civil unrests and other acts of violence or war involving India or other countries could adversely affect the financial markets, our business, financial condition and the price of our Equity Shares.

Any major hostilities involving India or other acts of violence, including civil unrest or similar events that are beyond our control, could have a material adverse effect on India's economy and our business. Incidents such as the terrorist attacks, other incidents such as those in US, Indonesia, Madrid and London, and other acts of violence may adversely affect the Indian stock markets where our Equity Shares will trade as well the global equity markets generally. Such acts could negatively impact business sentiment as well as trade between countries, which could adversely affect our Company's business and profitability. Additionally, such events could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

72. Instability of economic policies and the political situation in India could adversely affect the fortunes of the industry.

Unstable internal and international political environment could impact the economic performance in both the short term and the long term. The Government of India has pursued the economic liberalization policies including relaxing restrictions on the private sector over the past several years. The present Government has also announced policies and taken initiatives that support continued economic liberalization. The Government has traditionally exercised and continues to exercise a significant influence over many aspects of the Indian economy. Our Company's business, and the market price and liquidity of the Equity Shares, may be affected by changes in interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India.

73. The extent and reliability of Indian infrastructure could adversely affect our Company's results of operations and financial condition.

India's physical infrastructure is in developing phase compared to that of many developed nations. Any congestion or disruption in its port, rail and road networks, electricity grid, communication systems or any other public facility could disrupt our Company's normal business activity. Any deterioration of India's physical infrastructure would harm the national economy, disrupt the transportation of goods and supplies, and add costs to doing business in India. These problems could interrupt our Company's business operations, which could have an adverse effect on its results of operations and financial condition.

74. Natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy and cause Our Company's business to suffer.

India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunamis, floods etc. in recent years. The extent and severity of these natural disasters determine their impact on the Indian economy. Prolonged spells of abnormal rainfall or other natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operation as well as the price of the Equity Shares.

APPROACH TO MANUFACTURING OF LAMINATES INDUSTRY ANALYSIS

Analysis of Manufacturing of Laminates Industry needs to be approached at both macro and micro levels, whether for domestic or global markets. Manufacturing of Laminates Industry forms part of Manufacturing Sector at a macro level. Hence, broad picture of Manufacturing Sector should be at preface while analysing the Manufacturing of Laminates Industry.

Manufacturing sector comprises various industries, which in turn, have numerous sub-classes or products. One such major industry in the overall manufacturing sector is ‘manufacturing of Laminates Industry’.

Thus, Manufacturing of Laminates segment should be analysed in the light of ‘Laminates Industry’ at large. An appropriate view on Laminate Industry, then, calls for the overall economy outlook and scenario, performance and expectations of Manufacturing Sector, position and outlook of Laminate Industry and micro analysis.

This Approach Note is developed by Pantomath Capital Advisors (P) Ltd (Pantomath) and any unauthorized reference or use of this Note whether in the context of Manufacturing of Laminates Industry and / or any other industry, may entail legal consequences.

GLOBAL ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

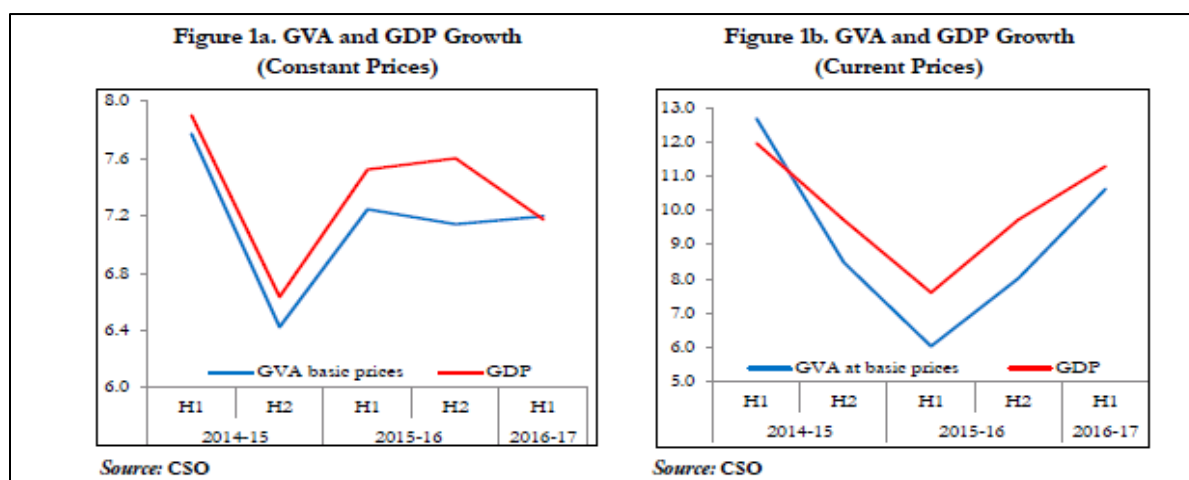

For India, three external developments are of significant consequence. In the short run, the change in the outlook for global interest rates as a result of the US elections and the implied change in expectations of US fiscal and monetary policy will impact on India's capital flows and exchange rates. Markets are factoring in a regime change in advanced countries, especially US macroeconomic policy, with high expectations of fiscal stimulus and unwavering exit from unconventional monetary policies. The end of the 20-year bond rally and end to the corset of deflation and deflationary expectations are within sight. Second, the medium-term political outlook for globalisation and in particular for the world's "political carrying capacity for globalisation" may have changed in the wake of recent developments. In the short run a strong dollar and declining competitiveness might exacerbate the lure of protectionist policies. These follow on on-going trends—documented widely—about stagnant or declining trade at the global level. This changed outlook will affect India's export and growth prospects.

Third, developments in the US, especially the rise of the dollar, will have implications for China's currency and currency policy. If China is able to successfully re-balance its economy, the spill over effects on India and the rest of the world will be positive. On the other hand, further declines in the yuan, even if dollar-induced, could interact with underlying vulnerabilities to create disruptions in China that could have negative spill overs for India. For China, there are at least two difficult balancing acts with respect to the currency. Domestically, a declining currency (and credit expansion) props up the economy in the short run but delay rebalancing while also adding to the medium term challenges. Internationally, allowing the currency to weaken in response to capital flight risks creating trade frictions but imposing capital controls discourages FDI and undermines China's ambitions to establish the Yuan as a reserve currency. China with its underlying vulnerabilities remains the country to watch for its potential to unsettle the global economy.

REVIEW OF MAJOR DEVELOPMENTS IN INDIAN ECONOMY

The Indian economy has continued to consolidate the gains achieved in restoring macroeconomic stability. Real GDP growth in the first half of the year was 7.2 percent, on the weaker side of the 7.0-7.75 per cent projection in the Economic Survey 2015-16 and somewhat lower than the 7.6 percent rate recorded in the second half of 2015-16 (Figure 1a). The main problem was fixed investment, which declined sharply as stressed balance sheets in the corporate sector continued to take a toll on firms' spending plans. On the positive side, the economy was buoyed by government consumption, as the 7th Pay Commission salary recommendations were implemented, and by the long-awaited start of an export recovery as demand in advanced countries began to accelerate. Nominal GDP growth recovered to respectable levels, reversing the sharp and worrisome dip that had occurred in the first half of 2015-16 (Figure 1b).

The major highlights of the sectoral growth outcome of the first half of 2016-17 were: (i) moderation in industrial and nongovernment service sectors; (ii) the modest pick-up in agricultural growth on the back of improved monsoon; and (iii) strong growth in public administration and defence services— dampeners on and catalysts to growth almost balancing each other and producing a real Gross Value Addition (GVA) growth (7.2 percent), quite similar to the one (7.1 per cent) in H2 2015-16 (Figure 1b).

Inflation this year has been characterized by two distinctive features. The Consumer Price Index (CPI)-New Series inflation, which averaged 4.9 per cent during April-December 2016, has displayed a downward trend since July when it became apparent that kharif agricultural production in general, and pulses in particular would be bountiful. The decline in pulses prices has contributed substantially to the decline in CPI inflation which reached 3.4 percent at end-December. The second distinctive feature has been the reversal of WPI inflation, from a trough of (-)5.1 percent in August 2015 to 3.4 percent at end-December 2016, on the back of rising international oil prices. The wedge between CPI and WPI inflation, which had serious implications for the measurement of GDP discussed in MYEA (Box 3, Chapter 1, MYEA 2015-16), has narrowed considerably. Core inflation has, however, been more stable, hovering around 4.5 percent to 5 percent for the year so far. The outlook for the year as a whole is for CPI inflation to be below the RBI's target of 5 percent, a trend likely to be assisted by demonetisation.

External Sector

Similarly, the external position appears robust having successfully weathered the sizeable redemption of Foreign Currency Non-Resident (FCNR) deposits in late 2016, and the volatility associated with the US election and demonetisation. The current account deficit has declined to reach about 0.3 percent of GDP in the first half of FY2017. Foreign exchange reserves are at comfortable levels, having risen from around US$350 billion at end-January 2016 to US$ 360 billion at end-December 2016 and are well above standard norms for reserve adequacy. In part, surging net FDI inflows, which grew from 1.7 percent of GDP in FY2016 to 3.2 percent of GDP in the second quarter of FY2017, helped the balance-of-payments.

The trade deficit declined by 23.5 per cent in April-December 2016 over corresponding period of previous year. During the first half of the fiscal year, the main factor was the contraction in imports, which was far steeper than the fall in exports. But during October- December, both exports and imports started a long-awaited recovery, growing at an average rate of more than 5 per cent. The improvement in exports appears to be linked to improvements in the world economy, led by better growth in the US and Germany. On the import side, the advantage on account of benign international oil prices has receded and is likely to exercise upward pressure on the import bill in the short to medium term. Meanwhile, the net services surplus declined in the first half, as software service exports slowed and financial service exports declined. Net private remittances declined by $4.5 bn in the first half of 2016-17 compared to the same period of 2015-16, weighed down by the lagged effects of the oil price decline, which affected inflows from the Gulf region.

Fiscal Position

Trends in the fiscal sector in the first half have been unexceptional and the central government is committed to achieving its fiscal deficit target of 3.5 percent of GDP this year. Excise duties and services taxes have benefitted from the additional revenue measures introduced last year. The most notable feature has been the over-performance (even relative to budget estimates) of excise duties in turn based on buoyant petroleum consumption: real consumption of petroleum products (petrol) increased by 11.2 percent during April-December 2016 compared to same period in the previous year. Indirect taxes, especially petroleum excises, have held up even after demonetisation in part due to the exemption of petroleum products from its scope. More broadly, tax collections have held up to a greater extent than expected possibly because of payment of dues in demonetised notes was permitted. Non-tax revenues have been challenged owing to shortfall in spectrum and disinvestment receipts but also to forecast optimism; the stress in public sector enterprises has also reduced dividend payments.

State government finances are under stress. The consolidated deficit of the states has increased steadily in recent years, rising from 2.5 percent of GDP in 2014-15 to 3.6 percent of GDP in 2015-16, in part because of the UDAY scheme. The budgeted numbers suggest there will be an improvement this year. However, markets are anticipating some slippage, on account of the expected growth slowdown, reduced revenues from stamp duties, and implementation of their own Pay Commissions. For these reasons, the spread on state bonds over government securities jumped to 75 basis points in the January 2017 auction from 45 basis points in October 2016. For the general government as a whole, there is an improvement in the fiscal deficit with and without UDAY scheme.

GLOBAL ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

For India, three external developments are of significant consequence. In the short run, the change in the outlook for global interest rates as a result of the US elections and the implied change in expectations of US fiscal and monetary policy will impact on India's capital flows and exchange rates. Markets are factoring in a regime change in advanced countries, especially US macroeconomic policy, with high expectations of fiscal stimulus and unwavering exit from unconventional monetary policies. The end of the 20-year bond rally and end to the corset of deflation and deflationary expectations are within sight. Second, the medium-term political outlook for globalisation and in particular for the world's "political carrying capacity for globalisation" may have changed in the wake of recent developments. In the short run a strong dollar and declining competitiveness might exacerbate the lure of protectionist policies. These follow on on-going trends—documented widely—about stagnant or declining trade at the global level. This changed outlook will affect India's export and growth prospects.

Third, developments in the US, especially the rise of the dollar, will have implications for China's currency and currency policy. If China is able to successfully re-balance its economy, the spill over effects on India and the rest of the world will be positive. On, the other hand, further declines in the yuan, even if dollar-induced, could interact with underlying vulnerabilities to create disruptions in China that could have negative spill overs for India. For China, there are at least two difficult balancing acts with respect to the currency. Domestically, a declining currency (and credit expansion) props up the economy in the short run but delay rebalancing while also adding to the medium term challenges. Internationally, allowing the currency to weaken in response to capital flight risks creating trade frictions but imposing capital controls discourages FDI and undermines China's ambitions to establish the Yuan as a reserve currency. China with its underlying vulnerabilities remains the country to watch for its potential to unsettle the global economy.

REVIEW OF MAJOR DEVELOPMENTS IN INDIAN ECONOMY

The Indian economy has continued to consolidate the gains achieved in restoring macroeconomic stability. Real GDP growth in the first half of the year was 7.2 percent, on the weaker side of the 7.0-7.75 per cent projection in the Economic Survey 2015-16 and somewhat lower than the 7.6 percent rate recorded in the second half of 2015-16 (Figure 1a). The main problem was fixed investment, which declined sharply as stressed balance sheets in the corporate sector continued to take a toll on firms' spending plans. On the positive side, the economy was buoyed by government consumption, as the 7th Pay Commission salary recommendations were implemented, and by the long-awaited start of an export recovery as demand in advanced countries began to accelerate. Nominal GDP growth recovered to respectable levels, reversing the sharp and worrisome dip that had occurred in the first half of 2015-16 (Figure 1b).

The major highlights of the sectoral growth outcome of the first half of 2016-17 were: (i) moderation in industrial and nongovernment service sectors; (ii) the modest pick-up in agricultural growth on the back of improved monsoon; and (iii) strong growth in public administration and defence services— dampeners on and catalysts to growth almost balancing each other and producing a real Gross Value Addition (GVA) growth (7.2 percent), quite similar to the one (7.1 per cent) in H2 2015-16 (Figure 1b).

Inflation this year has been characterized by two distinctive features. The Consumer Price Index (CPI)-New Series inflation, which averaged 4.9 per cent during April-December 2016, has displayed a downward trend since July when it became apparent that kharif agricultural production in general, and pulses in particular would be bountiful. The decline in pulses prices has contributed substantially to the decline in CPI inflation which reached 3.4 percent at end-December. The second distinctive feature has been the reversal of WPI inflation, from a trough of (-)5.1 percent in August 2015 to 3.4 percent at end-December 2016, on the back of rising international oil prices. The wedge between CPI and WPI inflation, which had serious implications for the measurement of GDP discussed in MYEA (Box 3, Chapter 1, MYEA 2015-16), has narrowed considerably. Core inflation has, however, been more stable, hovering around 4.5 percent to 5 percent for the year so far. The outlook for the year as a whole is for CPI inflation to be below the RBI's target of 5 percent, a trend likely to be assisted by demonetisation.

External Sector

Similarly, the external position appears robust having successfully weathered the sizeable redemption of Foreign Currency Non-Resident (FCNR) deposits in late 2016, and the volatility associated with the US election and demonetisation. The current account deficit has declined to reach about 0.3 percent of GDP in the first half of FY2017. Foreign exchange reserves are at comfortable levels, having have risen from around US$350 billion at end-January 2016 to US$ 360 billion at end-December 2016 and are well above standard norms for reserve adequacy. In part, surging net FDI inflows, which grew from 1.7 percent of GDP in FY2016 to 3.2 percent of GDP in the second quarter of FY2017, helped the balance-of-payments.

The trade deficit declined by 23.5 per cent in April-December 2016 over corresponding period of previous year. During the first half of the fiscal year, the main factor was the contraction in imports, which was far steeper than the fall in exports. But during October- December, both exports and imports started a long-awaited recovery, growing at an average rate of more than 5 per cent. The improvement in exports appears to be linked to improvements in the world economy, led by better growth in the US and Germany. On the import side, the advantage on account of benign international oil prices has receded and is likely to exercise upward pressure on the import bill in the short to medium term. Meanwhile, the net services surplus declined in the first half, as software service exports slowed and financial service exports declined. Net private remittances declined by $4.5 bn in the first half of 2016-17 compared to the same period of 2015-16, weighed down by the lagged effects of the oil price decline, which affected inflows from the Gulf region.

Fiscal Position

Trends in the fiscal sector in the first half have been unexceptional and the central government is committed to achieving its fiscal deficit target of 3.5 percent of GDP this year. Excise duties and services taxes have benefitted from the additional revenue measures introduced last year. The most notable feature has been the over-performance (even relative to budget estimates) of excise duties in turn based on buoyant petroleum consumption: real consumption of petroleum products (petrol) increased by 11.2 percent during April-December 2016 compared to same period in the previous year. Indirect taxes, especially petroleum excises, have held up even after demonetisation in part due to the exemption of petroleum products from its scope. More broadly, tax collections have held up to a greater extent than expected possibly because of payment of dues in demonetised notes was permitted. Non-tax revenues have been challenged owing to shortfall in spectrum and disinvestment receipts but also to forecast optimism; the stress in public sector enterprises has also reduced dividend payments.

State government finances are under stress. The consolidated deficit of the states has increased steadily in recent years, rising from 2.5 percent of GDP in 2014-15 to 3.6 percent of GDP in 2015-16, in part because of the UDAY scheme. The budgeted numbers suggest there will be an improvement this year. However, markets are anticipating some slippage, on account of the expected growth slowdown, reduced revenues from stamp duties, and implementation of their own Pay Commissions. For these reasons, the spread on state bonds over government securities jumped to 75 basis points in the January 2017 auction from 45 basis points in October 2016. For the general government as a whole, there is an improvement in the fiscal deficit with and without UDAY scheme.

OUTLOOK FOR 2016-17

This year's outlook must be evaluated in the wake of the November 8 action to demonetize the high denomination notes. But it is first important to understand the analytics of the demonetisation shock in the short run. Demonetisation affects the economy through three different channels. It is potentially: 1) an aggregate demand shock because it reduces the supply of money and affects private wealth, especially of those holding unaccounted money; 2) an aggregate supply shock to the extent that economic activity relies on cash as an input (for example, agricultural production might be affected since sowing requires the use of labour traditionally paid in cash); and 3) an uncertainty shock because economic agents face imponderables related to the magnitude and duration of the cash shortage and the policy responses (perhaps causing consumers to defer or reduce discretionary consumption and firms to scale back investments).

Demonetisation is also very unusual in its monetary consequences. It has reduced sharply, the supply of one type of money— cash—while increasing almost to the same extent another type of money— demand deposits. This is because the demonetized cash was required to be deposited in the banking system. In the third quarter of FY2017 (when demonetisation was introduced), cash declined by 9.4 percent, demand deposits increased by 43 percent, and growth in the sum of the two by 11.3 percent.

The price counterparts of this unusual aspect of demonetisation are the surge in the price of cash (inferred largely through queues and restrictions), on the one hand; and the decline in interest rates on the lending rate (based on the marginal cost of funds) by 90 basis points since November 9; on deposits (by about 25 basis points); and on g-secs on the other (by about 32 basis points).

There is yet another dimension of demonetisation that must be kept in mind. By definition, all these quantity and price impacts will self-correct by amounts that will depend on the pace at which the economy is remonetized and policy restrictions eased. As this occurs, consumers will run down their bank deposits and increase their cash holdings. Of course, it is possible, even likely that the self-correction will not be complete because in the new equilibrium, aggregate cash holdings (as a share of banking deposits and GDP) are likely to be lower than before.

Anecdotal and other survey data abound on the impact of demonetisation. But we are interested in a macro-assessment and hence focus on five broad indicators: Agricultural (Rabi) sowing; Indirect tax revenue, as a broad gauge of production and sales; Auto sales, as a measure of discretionary consumer spending and two-wheelers, as the best indicator of both rural and less affluent demand; Real credit growth; and Real estate prices. Contrary to early fears, as of January 15, 2017 aggregate sowing of the two major rabi crops—wheat and pulses (gram)—exceeded last year's planting by 7.1 percent and 10.7 percent, respectively. Favourable weather and moisture conditions presage an increase in production. To what extent these favourable factors will be attenuated will depend on whether farmers' access to inputs—fertilizer, credit, and labour—was affected by the cash shortage.

To estimate a demonetisation effect, one needs to start with the counterfactual. Our best estimate of growth in the absence of demonetisation is 11¼ percent in nominal terms (slightly higher than last year's Survey forecast because of the faster rebound in WPI inflation, but lower than the CSO's advance estimate of 11.9 percent) and 7 percent in real terms (in line with both projections).

Finally, demonetisation will afford an interesting natural experiment on the substitutability between cash and other forms of money. Demonetisation has driven a sharp and dramatic wedge in the supply of these two: if cash and other forms are substitutable, the impact will be relatively muted; if, on the other hand, cash is not substitutable the impact will be greater.

OUTLOOK FOR 2017-18

Turning to the outlook for 2017-18, we need to examine each of the components of aggregate demand: exports, consumption, private investment and government.

As discussed earlier, India's exports appear to be recovering, based on an uptick in global economic activity. This is expected to continue in the aftermath of the US elections and expectations of a fiscal stimulus. The IMF's January update of its World Economic Outlook forecast is projecting an increase in global growth from 3.1 percent in 2016 to 3.4 percent in 2017, with a corresponding increase in growth for advanced economies from 1.6 percent to 1.9 percent. Given the high elasticity of Indian real export growth to global GDP, exports could contribute to higher growth next year, by as much as 1 percentage point.

The outlook for private consumption is less clear. International oil prices are expected to be about 10-15 percent higher in 2017 compared to 2016, which would create a drag of about 0.5 percentage points. On the other hand, consumption is expected to receive a boost from two sources: catch-up after the demonetisation-induced reduction in the last two quarters of 2016-17; and cheaper borrowing costs, which are likely to be lower in 2017 than 2016 by as much as 75 to 100 basis points. As a result, spending on housing and consumer durables and semi-durables could rise smartly. It is too early to predict prospects for the monsoon in 2017 and hence agricultural production. But the higher is agricultural growth this year, the less likely that there would be an extra boost to GDP growth next year.

Since no clear progress is yet visible in tackling the twin balance sheet problem, private investment is unlikely to recover significantly from the levels of FY2017. Some of this weakness could be offset through higher public investment, but that would depend on the stance of fiscal policy next year, which has to balance the short-term requirements of an economy recovering from demonetisation against the medium-term necessity of adhering to fiscal discipline—and the need to be seen as doing so. Putting these factors together, we expect real GDP growth to be in the 6¾ to 7½ percent range in FY2018. Even under this forecast, India would remain the fastest growing major economy in the world.

There are three main downside risks to the forecast. First, the extent to which the effects of demonetisation could linger into next year, especially if uncertainty remains on the policy response. Currency shortages also affect supplies of certain agricultural products, especially milk (where procurement has been low), sugar (where cane availability and drought in the southern states will restrict production), and potatoes and onions (where sowings have been low). Vigilance is essential to prevent other agricultural products becoming in 2017-18 what pulses were in 2015-16.

Second, geopolitics could take oil prices up further than forecast. The ability of shale oil production to respond quickly should contain the risks of a sharp increase, but even if prices rose merely to $60-65/barrel the Indian economy would nonetheless be affected by way of reduced consumption; less room for public investment; and lower corporate margins, further denting private investment. The scope for monetary easing might also narrow, if higher oil prices stoked inflationary pressure.

Third, there are risks from the possible eruption of trade tensions amongst the major countries, triggered by geo-politics or currency movements. This could reduce global growth and trigger capital flight from emerging markets. The one significant upside possibility is a strong rebound in global demand and hence in India's exports. There are some nascent signs of that in the last two quarters. A strong export recovery would have broader spill over effects to investment.

Fiscal outlook

The fiscal outlook for the central government for next year will be marked by three factors. First, the increase in the tax to GDP ratio of about 0.5 percentage points in each of the last two years, owing to the oil windfall will disappear. In fact, excise-related taxes will decline by about 0.1 percentage point of GDP, a swing of about 0.6 percentage points relative to FY2017.

Second, there will be a fiscal windfall both from the high denomination notes that are not returned to the RBI and from higher tax collections as a result of increased disclosure under the Pradhan Mantra Garib Kalyan Yojana (PMGKY). Both of these are likely to be one-off in nature, and in both cases the magnitudes are uncertain.

A third factor will be the implementation of the GST. It appears that the GST will probably be implemented later in the fiscal year. The transition to the GST is so complicated from an administrative and technology perspective that revenue collection will take some time to reach full potential. Combined with the government's commitment to compensating the states for any shortfall in their own GST collections (relative to a baseline of 14 percent increase), the outlook must be cautious with respect to revenue collections. The fiscal gains from implementing the GST and demonetisation, while almost certain to occur, will probably take time to be fully realized. In addition, muted non-tax revenues and allowances granted under the 7th Pay Commission could add to pressures on the deficit.

The macroeconomic policy stance for 2017-18

An economy recovering from demonetisation will need policy support. On the assumption that the equilibrium cash-GDP ratio will be lower than before November 8, the banking system will benefit from a higher level of deposits. Thus, market interest rates—deposits, lending, and yields on g-secs—should be lower in 2017-18 than 2016-17. This will provide a boost to the economy (provided, of course, liquidity is no longer a binding constraint). A corollary is that policy rates can be lower not necessarily to lead and nudge market rates but to validate them. Of course, any sharp uptick in oil prices and those of agricultural products, would limit the scope for monetary easing.

Fiscal policy is another potential source of policy support. This year the arguments may be slightly different from those of last year in two respects. Unlike last year, there is more cyclical weakness on account of demonetisation. Moreover, the government has acquired more credibility because of posting steady and consistent improvements in the fiscal situation for three consecutive years, the central government fiscal deficit declining from 4.5 percent of GDP in 2013-14 to 4.1 percent, 3.9 percent, and 3.5 percent in the following three years. But fiscal policy needs to balance the cyclical imperatives with medium term issues relating to prudence and credibility.

One key question will be the use of the fiscal windfall (comprising the unreturned cash and additional receipts under the PMGKY) which is still uncertain. Since the windfall to the public sector is both one off and a wealth gain not an income gain, it should be deployed to strengthening the government's balance sheet rather than being used for government consumption, especially in the form of programs that create permanent entitlements. In this light, the best use of the windfall would be to create a public sector asset reconstruction company so that the twin balance sheet problem can be addressed, facilitating credit and investment revival; or toward the compensation fund for the GST that would allow the rates to be lowered and simplified; or toward debt reduction. The windfall should not influence decisions about the conduct of fiscal policy going forward.

Perhaps the most important reforms to boost growth will be structural. In addition to those spelt out in Section 1—strategic disinvestment, tax reform, subsidy rationalization—it is imperative to address directly the twin balance sheet problem. The problem is large, persistent and difficult, will not correct itself even if growth picks up and interest rates decline, and current attempts have proved grossly inadequate. It may be time to consider something like a public sector asset reconstruction company.

Another area of reform relates to labour. Given the difficulty of reforming labor laws per se, the thrust could be to move towards affording greater choice to workers which would foster competition amongst service providers. Choices would relate to: whether they want to make their own contribution to the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO); whether the employers' contribution should go to the EPFO or the National Pension Scheme; and whether to contribute to the Employee State Insurance (ESI) or an alternative medical insurance program. At the same time, there could be a gradual move to ensure that at least compliance with the central labour laws is made paperless, presence less, and cashless. One radical idea to consider is the provision of a universal basic income. But another more modest proposal worth embracing is procedural: a standstill on new government programs, a commitment to assess every new program only if it can be shown to demonstrably address the limitations of an existing one that is similar to the proposed one; and a commitment to evaluate and phase down existing programs that are not serving their purpose.

GLOBAL MANUFACTURING SECTOR

World Manufacturing Growth

World manufacturing gained further strength in the first quarter of 2017, building on a sluggish, but already improving performance throughout 2016. Both industrialized economies and developing and emerging industrial economies indicated the onset of healthy dynamics in manufacturing production and entered the new production year 2017 with upward growth trends.

Although the degree of uncertainty has largely remained the same, recent figures presented in this report suggest that the prospects of sustained global industrial growth in the coming period both in industrialized and in developing and emerging industrial economies are improving. Risks of a downturn in the new context are associated with the changes in global trade arrangements, high geopolitical uncertainty and the implications of Brexit. In the case of developing economies, favourable investment conditions for the manufacturing industry are yet to be established.

Global manufacturing output rose by 3.7 per cent in the first quarter of 2017 compared to the same period of the previous year, visibly above the 2.6 per cent average increase observed in 2016. Positive trends with some improvement in growth figures were observed across all country groups, steadily progressing over several consecutive quarters, as depicted in Figure 1. The recent upturn in the growth performance of developing countries reflects the stronger than expected growth in China, the world's largest manufacturer, as well as a healthy pace of growth of the other countries within the country group. The major industrialized economies with a significant share in global manufacturing output, namely the United States, Japan, Germany and the Republic of Korea, thrived during the first quarter of 2017, and pushed the average growth of industrialized economies upward.

Manufacturing production data from the first quarter of 2017 support the view that the positive development in industrialized economies at the end of 2016 was not short-lived: manufacturing output increased to 1.9 per cent in the first quarter of 2017 compared to the same period of 2016.

The pace of growth remained rather moderate in the North American and European regions, where a 1.1 and 1.4 per cent expansion was recorded, respectively, in a year-by-year comparison. Production in East Asia, which experienced a significant reversal in growth in the second half of 2016 following several consecutive slumps that have lasted for nearly two years, witnessed a healthy 4.2 per cent year-by-year upturn, and had a positive impact on the manufacturing growth of industrialized countries as a whole.

The manufacturing output of developing and emerging industrial economies rose by 6.0 per cent. Increased manufacturing production was observed across all developing regions compared to the first quarter of 2016. Asian developing economies achieved a relatively higher growth rate at nearly 7.0 per cent, showing that strong global demand and investment at the beginning of 2017 strengthened the growth momentum and broke the 2-year stagnation at the same growth performance level. Other regions' production also increased compared to the same period of 2016: by a tenuous 0.4 per cent in Latin America, signalling a recovery from a long-lasting recession, and by a more passable but less stable 5.7 per cent in Africa.

Even though the level of growth in developing countries has been continuously higher than in industrialized countries, the threat of a slow-down remains looming over developing economies as long as economic and political instability persists in industrialized countries.

Industrialized Economies

The manufacturing output growth of industrialized economies experienced some improvement over previous quarters, however, growth is still advancing in slow motion. Examining the first quarter results, the 1.9 per cent growth rate was attributable to moderate growth in Europe and North America, which was compensated by a notable pick-up in manufacturing activity in East-Asian industrialized economies.

Among the industrialized country group, Europe's manufacturing output grew by 1.4 per cent in the first quarter of 2017, while the eurozone registered a growth rate of only 1.1 per cent. Even though the growth trends for these two groups nearly merged at the end of 2016, the onset of 2017 brought a change, with European countries beyond the eurozone displaying stronger resistance to adverse impacts. The available data point to a more moderate growth rate, when comparing year-to-year developments among the leading eurozone economies, at 0.9 per cent in Germany, nearly 1.0 per cent in Italy and 0.6 per cent in France. The growth figures for the majority of eurozone countries were positive, with a strong growth of 7.6 per cent observed in Slovakia, which remains one of the fastest-growing manufacturers in the single-currency bloc. A fairly robust growth rate of 3.5 per cent was recorded in the Netherlands, 2.7 per cent in Belgium, 2.6 per cent in Finland, 1.8 per cent in Spain and 1.7 per cent in Austria. A small recession was averted in Portugal in the first quarter of 2017, where a 1.6 per cent growth was registered. On the flip side, Ireland and Luxembourg lagged behind, their growth rate falling sharply by 6.4 per cent and 3.8 per cent, respectively.

Taking a closer look at individual countries beyond the eurozone, the United Kingdom recorded a 2.7 per cent growth in manufacturing output on a year-to-year basis, supported by the favourable tailwind of a weaker sterling. Despite an expected slowdown in the aftermath of Brexit, it was the fastest manufacturing output growth in the UK in the last three years. Due to increased EU fund inflows, the pace of growth strengthened in Czechia and Hungary, where a 5.4 per cent and 6.5 per cent rise was recorded, respectively. Other positive results were visible in Switzerland with a 0.7 per cent growth rate as well as in Nordic countries - Sweden and Denmark expanded their manufacturing production by roughly 3.5 per cent, while Norway significantly moderated its contraction rate to only 2.0 per cent loss. Despite the positive change in oil prices and stronger export performance, Russian manufacturing experienced a slight drop by less than 1.0 per cent in the first quarter of 2017. The overall manufacturing production in North America grew by 1.1 per cent compared to the same period of 2016. The rate of expansion picked up slightly in the United States, but remained relatively modest with a 0.9 per cent improvement in total manufacturing output over the same period of the previous year. Manufacturing output in Canada rose by 2.7 per cent in the first quarter of 2017, benefitting from the strong performance of machinery and equipment.

The disruption of a long period of consecutive contraction in the industrialized East-Asian economies was confirmed by another positive result - a nearly 4.2 per cent improvement was observed in the first quarter of 2017 compared to the same period of the previous year. The relatively weak yen and strong global demand fuelled Japan's manufacturing sector, a major force behind the entire region's upturn, recording a positive growth rate of 3.9 per cent. This upswing was primarily attributable to the boost in all of Japan's three key industries - the auto- motive industry, computers, electronic and optical products and machinery and equipment. The manufacturing production in the Republic of Korea picked up pace at the onset of 2017, and amounted to 3.9 per cent on a year-to-year basis, its multi-year high. Malaysia's total manufacturing output recorded a 6.8 per cent rise in the first quarter of 2017, and a very strong growth rate of 8.5 per cent was observed in Singapore.

In the first quarter of 2017, the overall accelerated growth of manufacturing output in developing and emerging industrial economies was affected by positive signals coming from different parts of the country group - Latin America broke the long-lasting period of recession, Asian economies (including China) prospered more than expected and increased China-Africa trade boosted production in Africa. Strong investments among private companies and healthy external demand were translated into the fastest acceleration in manufacturing output in China since the last quarter of 2014, at 7.6 per cent over the same period of the previous year. China's ongoing economic transition, which entails a weaker but more stable and sustainable pace, is upgrading the manufacturing industry by optimizing investment in the environment and supporting the development of advanced manufacturing industries.

Latin American economies, which have recently faced a severe decline due to a series of domestic and external shocks, is recovering from last year's dismal performance and recorded minor, but finally positive growth of 0.4 per cent in the first quarter of 2017 in a year-to-year comparison. Argentina and Brazil have softened the fall of their manufacturing activities and are slowly emerging from recession, however, given the severity of the recession, these economies are likely to take a longer time for full recovery. Manufacturing production in Brazil has been contracting uninterruptedly since the beginning of 2014, dropped by merely 0.4 per cent in the first quarter of 2017. Production continued to fall in Argentina, albeit at a slower pace - by 3.1 per cent compared to the same period of the previous year, likely softened by a strengthening peso. Looking at the other countries in the region, Mexico recorded a positive growth of 3.4 per cent, whereas manufacturing output fell in Colombia and Chile by 2.6 and 1.2 per cent, respectively.

Improved growth performance was also observed in Asia and the Pacific region, where manufacturing output rose by nearly 7.0 per cent at the onset of 2017. Viet Nam, one of Asia's fast-growing economies, strayed from the long-term trajectory of double-digit growth in manufacturing and achieved only 7.5 per cent in the first quarter of 2017 in a year-by-year comparison. Abruptly weakened exports slowed Viet Nam's manufacturing output growth, but the country largely maintained its attractiveness for foreign direct investment. On the other hand, surging exports in Indonesia led the country's manufacturing sector to expand by 4.3 per cent, accelerating from the 2.2 per cent growth rate recorded at the end of 2016. Higher global demand prompted manufacturing growth in India, which gained traction in the first quarter of 2017 and recorded 1.5 per cent increase compared to the same period of the previous year, after a disappointing performance in 2016. Together with Bangladesh, India is expected to be the region's fastest-growing economy in 2017. According to UNIDO estimates, very positive developments in growth were also observed in Saudi Arabia, the Philippines and Pakistan.

According to UNIDO estimates, manufacturing output in Africa increased to 5.7 per cent in the first quarter of 2017. It should be noted, however, that estimates for Africa are based on limited data. Egypt and Senegal registered a positive two-digit growth rate, Morocco and Cote d'Ivoire expanded by 1.4 per cent and 4.5 per cent, respectively, while Tunisia's manufacturing output dropped slightly by 0.7 per cent compared to the same period of the previous year. South Africa, the region's most industrialized economy, observed the lowest growth with a contraction rate of 1.7 per cent and dim prospects for 2017.

Among other developing economies, the manufacturing output of Eastern European countries achieved relatively higher growth rates. Manufacturing output rose by 6.6 per cent in Poland, 6.7 per cent in Romania, 3.5 per cent in Bulgaria, 7.0 per cent in Serbia and 2.2 per cent in Croatia. Turkey also performed well in the manufacturing sector, which grew by 1.7 per cent.

Key Findings - Global manufacturing

Economists are predicting that despite the increased risks, the world is set for a slightly better year in 2017. UNIDO data largely supports these predictions. Production of motor vehicles, one of the leading sectors in manufacturing, is once again experiencing a steady expansion at the global level, however, disruption of free trade could hurt automobile and component makers. Nearly every major automotive producer is intensifying investments in electric vehicles despite low oil prices. Future cars will increasingly be electric, connected and self-driving, and 2017 will bring progress on all three fronts. A greater source of concern is the world's larger automobile market, China, which is forecast to slow in 2017.

Global manufacturing production maintained a positive growth in nearly all industries in the first quarter of 2017. High- and medium-high-technology manufacturing industries repeatedly held top positions, when looking at year-by-year developments - the manufacture of computers, electronics and optical products grew by 8.5 per cent, the production of machinery and equipment rose by 6.1 per cent and the manufacture of motor vehicles by 5.6 per cent.

Among other high-technology sectors, the manufacture of pharmaceutical products increased by 3.2 per cent, while almost no change was recorded in the production of other transport equipment over the same period of the previous year.

Relatively high growth rates in the production of basic consumer goods were maintained worldwide. The global manufacture of food products rose by 3.5 per cent, beverages by 2.8 per cent and the global manufacture of wearing apparel increased by 2.6 per cent.

As regards durable and capital goods, the production of machinery and equipment experienced an exceptionally high growth rate and overtook the automotive industry in the first quarter of 2017. The manufacture of non-metallic mineral products, which essentially supply construction materials, registered a growth figure of 3.3 per cent while the manufacture of fabricated metal products rose by 2.9 per cent worldwide. The global manufacturing of basic metals and furniture both rose at a moderate pace of 2.1 per cent.

In low-technology manufacturing sectors, the global production of wood products rose by 3.2 per cent, while the growth pace of manufacturing of paper products, textiles and leather products remained below 2.5 per cent.

The growth performance of developing and emerging industrial economies outperformed industrialized economies in nearly all manufacturing industries, including a number of high-technology industries, with only one exception - the manufacture of coke and refined petroleum products, as illustrated in Figure 4. The fastest growing industry in both country groups was the manufacture of computer, electronic and optical products with Asian economies as the largest contributors.

The growth rates for selected industries are presented below. Additional statistics on the growth rates in the first quarter of 2017 are available in the Statistical Tables.

MANUFACTURING SECTOR IN INDIA

Introduction

Manufacturing has emerged as one of the high growth sectors in India. Prime Minister of India, Mr Narendra Modi, had launched the 'Make in India' program to place India on the world map as a manufacturing hub and give global recognition to the Indian economy. India is expected to become the fifth largest manufacturing country in the world by the end of year 2020*.

The Government of India has set an ambitious target of increasing the contribution of manufacturing output to 25 per cent of Gross Domestic Product (GDP) by 2025, from 16 per cent currently.

Market Size

India's manufacturing sector has the potential to touch US$ 1 trillion by 2025. There is potential for the sector to account for 25-30 per cent of the country's GDP and create up to 90 million domestic jobs by 2025. Business conditions in the Indian manufacturing sector continue to remain positive.

Investments

With the help of Make in India drive, India is on the path of becoming the hub for hi-tech manufacturing as global giants such as GE, Siemens, HTC, Toshiba, and Boeing have either set up or are in process of setting up manufacturing plants in India, attracted by India's market of more than a billion consumers and increasing purchasing power.

Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) inflows in India's manufacturing sector grew by 82 per cent year-on-year to US$ 16.13 billion during April-November 2016.

India has become one of the most attractive destinations for investments in the manufacturing sector. Some of the major investments and developments in this sector in the recent past are:

- Apple plans to produce iPhone SE at an upcoming facility in Bengaluru, owned by its partner Wistron, which has upgraded the plant to assemble Apple iPhones.

Road Ahead

The Government of India has an ambitious plan to locally manufacture as many as 181 products. The move could help infrastructure sectors such as power, oil and gas, and automobile manufacturing that require large capital expenditure and revive the Rs 1,85,000 crore (US$ 27.75 billion) Indian capital goods business.

India is an attractive hub for foreign investments in the manufacturing sector. Several mobile phone, luxury and automobile brands, among others, have set up or are looking to establish their manufacturing bases in the country.

With impetus on developing industrial corridors and smart cities, the government aims to ensure holistic development of the nation. The corridors would further assist in integrating, monitoring and developing a conducive environment for the industrial development and will promote advance practices in manufacturing.

INDIAN LAMINATE INDUSTRY

Decorative laminates are laminated products primarily used as furniture surface materials or wall paneling. It can be manufactured as either high-or low pressure laminate, with the two processes not much different from each other except for the pressure applied in the pressing process. Decorative plastic laminate is a durable flat sheeting material used in home and industrial furnishings. Decorative laminate is commonly used to surface kitchen counters, table tops, and cabinetry because of its resistance to stains, scratches, and heat.

Sunmica is one of the foremost brands in the Indian Laminate Industry that has become a household name and has the highest brand recall amongst Indian customers. Infact when most Indians say 'Sunmica' what they mean to say is 'Laminates'. The two words have become so synonymous with each other in India.

In India three types of decorative and industrial laminated sheets are being manufactured usually being phenol formaldehyde or melamine formaldehyde or other phenolic resins as binding materials for the core and the surface papers. The decorative paper for lamination is imported.

Today, laminated sheets are becoming very popular particularly plastics and paper laminated sheets. Glass laminated sheets are used by and large in aircraft and certain scientific plans. Plastic laminates are highly popular

Laminations are used for industrial purposes as well as decorative purposes. Industrial lamination is used mainly for packaging materials. To looking its uses we can say that there is a good scope for any new entrants

Indian market for laminates is mainly driven by increasing demand from housing market. The demand has increased due to growing significance of new construction industry. Laminates have be come an in dispensable part of big and evolving markets like real estate market, furniture market, modular kitchen market as well as the flooring market. The increased demand in these market striggers the demand in the laminates market.

Apart from this, increasing urban population, rising per capita income and a gradual shift towards non-food industry are other key factors driving the growth of laminates industry in India. The combined worth of the plywood and laminates industry is believed to be to the tune of Rs.21000 crore per year, with laminates accounting for a share of approximately Rs.3300 crore, and the industry is expected to keep on growing further in the years to come. Global demand for decorative laminates is expected to rise 5.6 percent per year to 10.7 billion square meters In 2018, valued at $ 40.8 billion. Demand will benefit from expected increases in the manufacture of products such as cabinets, ready-to-assemble (RTA) furniture, and flooring, which are of ten made from laminated engineered wood. Gains will also be driven by increased market penetration at the expense of other surfacing materials (wood veneer and paint) due to cost and performance benefits. Laminates will benefit from the continued improvement in textures and in printing techniques that create advanced graphics rivalling the aesthetics of alternative materials. UTILITIES & INFRASTRUCTURE FACILITIES

Our registered office at Naroda and manufacturing facility at Zak is well equipped with computer systems, internet connectivity, other communication equipment, security and other facilities, which are required for our business operations to function smoothly. Our manufacturing facility at Zak is equipped with requisite utilities and infrastructure facilities including the following:

Power

In our unit in Zak the sanctioned load is 350 KVA from Uttar Gujarat Vij Company Limited. We also have DG set (generator), which is used as standby arrangement for power.

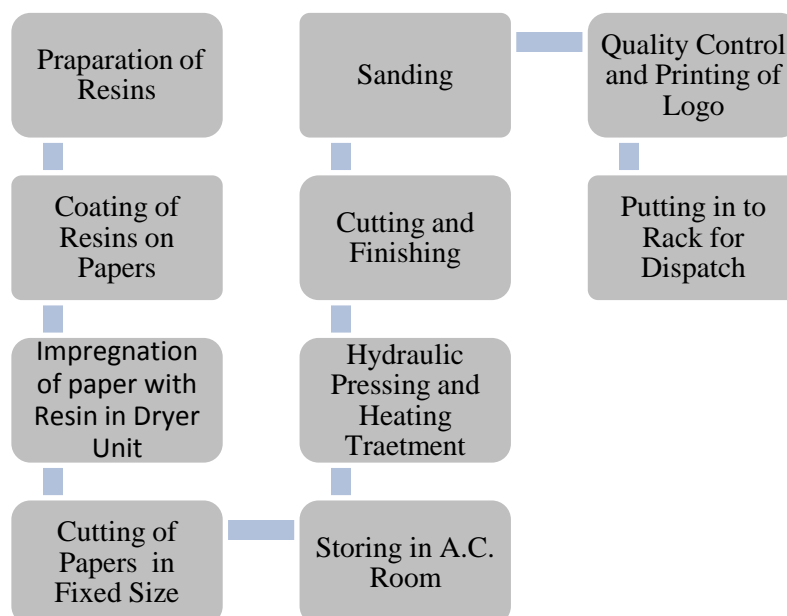

Water

The water requirement for manufacturing facilities is met through our own bore well.

Fuel

At our manufacturing facility at Zak, we use coal and fire wood for boiler. At present we have 2 boilers with capacity of 4 tons and 6 tons respectively. The present usage of coal is approx.533 tons and firewood is 9000 tons approximately p.a. for the boilers.

PRODUCTION PROCESS

Preparation of Resins

Preparation of Resins is an important part of the process. Phenol and Formaldehyde are taken in MS jacketed vessel and blended at 100 degree Celsius to form polymeric resin of Phenol Formaldehyde. Similarly, Melamine and Formaldehyde are blended in reaction chamber to form Melamine Formaldehyde. Since these resins are very viscous they are diluted by adding solvent (Methanol). The resins are prepared as per required mix of chemicals as per below details.

Melamine – Formaldehyde (M-F) Resin:- It is manufactured by reacting melamine with formaldehyde in a jacketed reactor.

Phenol- Formaldehyde (P-F) Resin:- Phenol-Formaldehyde (P-F) resin is manufactured by the condensation polymerization of phenol with formaldehyde under controlled conditions.

Coating of Resins on Papers

After preparation of resins in vessel, the layer of these resins are applied on decorative and kraft papers through impregnation in impregnation unit where resins are filled in resin tray and paper roll is set in squeeze rolls which passes through resins tray to the dryer press.

Impregnation of paper with Resin in Dryer Unit

Coated papers then passes to the impregnation unit and dryer press machine where it is automatically processed through drying treatment by heating oil which is supplied from boilers and in that process after drying it finally an impregnation of papers is done.

Melamine resin is coated on tissue and design paper, whereas phenolic resin is coated on kraft paper. Two impregnation processes will be carried out in a single impregnation unit alternatively to cope up with prepared capacity of the unit.

The melamine formaldehyde resin solution is kept in a tray and paper which is to be coated through guide roll passes via drying chamber. The sheets impregnated with M.F. resin and P.F. resin, after drying, are cut automatically at the other end of dryers in required set size. These are then stored usually in air conditioned room.

Pressing

Decorative Paper and Kraft Paper are cut and several layers of these papers are put together according to the thickness desired. The stainless steel moulds are placed for desired finish and BOOP film is placed for separating the various layers of two adjoining sheets, before applying pressure. Thereafter hydraulic pressure at a very high temperature is applied through multi opening hydraulic press.

Cutting of Papers

It is then cut into the fixed size sheets. A cutting machine is used to cut paper roll. This machine helps in neat cutting with low, noise and high efficiency. It provides desired productivity with minimal fatigue.

Storing in A.C. Room

After impregnation and cutting of paper in fixed size, they are stored in air conditioned room for certain period as per requirements.

Hydraulic Pressing and Heating Treatment

Design paper coated with melamine resin and Kraft paper coated with phenolic resin are put together on separating paper between two stainless steel plates with different finish.

All together are put into hydraulic press. Pressure and heat is applied by pressing steam through the plates. Subsequently, the supply heat is continuing and gradually released.

Cutting and Finishing

After papers sheets passes through the hydraulic press and heating treatment the sheets are again sized and proper finishing is done as per size so as to give proper shape to the final sheet by cutting machine.

Sanding

After cutting and finishing of all sheets, it passes through the process of sanding where sheets are sanded and thereafter sent to Quality Control.

Quality Control and Logo Printing

All sanded sheets are now forwarded to quality control department where all products are checked by quality department for grading of the sheets. This policy was prepared through an intensive process of consultation within the Government and inputs from experts. It does not displace, but builds on the earlier policies. It is a statement of India's commitment to making a positive contribution to international efforts. This is a response to our national commitment to a clean environment, mandated in the Constitution in Articles 48 A and 51 A (g), strengthened by judicial interpretation of Article 21. The dominant theme of this policy is that while conservation of environmental resources is necessary to secure livelihoods and well-being of all, the most secure basis for conservation is to ensure that people dependent on particular resources obtain better livelihoods from the fact of conservation, than from degradation of the resource. Following are the objectives of National Environmental Policy:

- Conservation of Critical Environmental Resources
- Intra-generational Equity: Livelihood Security for the Poor
- Inter-generational Equity
- Integration of Environmental Concerns in Economic and Social Development
- Efficiency in Environmental Resource Use

- d) Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process

Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue; it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors.

Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of Rs.20 to Rs 24 per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (Rs.)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Offer the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., Rs. 22.00 in the above example. The Issuer, in consultation with the BRLMs, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below Rs. 22.00. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

The Issuer is required to receive a minimum subscription of 90% of the Offer (excluding any Offer for Sale of specified securities). However, in case the Offer is in the nature of Offer for Sale only, then minimum subscription may not be applicable.

7.1 BASIS OF ALLOTMENT

Allotment will be made in consultation with the SME Platform of BSE Limited (The Designated Stock Exchange). In the event of oversubscription, the allotment will be made on a proportionate basis in marketable lots as set forth hereunder:

- (a) The total number of Shares to be allocated to each category as a whole shall be arrived at on a proportionate basis i.e. the total number of Shares applied for in that category multiplied by the inverse of the oversubscription ratio (number of Bidders in the category x number of Shares applied for).
- (b) The number of Shares to be allocated to the successful Bidders will be arrived at on a proportionate basis in marketable lots (i.e. Total number of Shares applied for into the inverse of the oversubscription ratio).

 - Each successful Bidder shall be allotted [●] equity shares; and
 - The successful Bidder out of the total bidders for that category shall be determined by the drawl of lots in such a manner that the total number of Shares allotted in that category is equal to the number of Shares worked out as per (b) above.
- (d) If the proportionate allotment to a Bidder works out to a number that is not a multiple of [●] equity shares, the Bidder would be allotted Shares by rounding off to the nearest multiple of [●] equity shares subject to a minimum allotment of [●] equity shares.
- (e) If the Shares allotted on a proportionate basis to any category is more than the Shares allotted to the Bidders in that category, the balance available Shares or allocation shall be first adjusted against any category, where the allotted Shares are not sufficient for proportionate allotment to the successful Bidder in that category, the balance Shares, if any, remaining after such adjustment will be added to the category comprising Bidder applying for the minimum number of Shares. If as a result of the process of rounding off to the nearest multiple of [●] Equity Shares, results in the actual allotment being higher than the shares offered, the final allotment may be higher at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, up to 110% of the size of the offer specified under the Capital Structure mentioned in this DRHP.
- (f) The above proportionate allotment of Shares in an Issue that is oversubscribed shall be subject to the reservation for Retail individual Bidders as described below:

RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 ("FEMA"). While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The government bodies responsible for granting foreign investment approvals are the Reserve Bank of India ("RBI") and Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India ("DIPP").

The Government of India, from time to time, has made policy pronouncements on Foreign Direct Investment ("FDI") through press notes and press releases. The Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India ("DIPP"), has issued consolidated FDI Policy Circular of 2017 ("FDI Policy 2017"), which with effect from August 28, 2017, consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI Policy issued by the DIPP that were in force. The Government proposes to update the consolidated circular on FDI policy once every year and therefore, FDI Policy 2017 will be valid until the DIPP issues an updated circular.

The Reserve Bank of India ("RBI") also issues Master Circular on Foreign Investment in India every year. Presently, FDI in India is being governed by Master Circular on Foreign Investment dated July 01, 2015 as updated from time to time by RBI. In terms of the Master Circular, an Indian company may issue fresh shares to people resident outside India (who is eligible to make investments in India, for which eligibility criteria are as prescribed). Such fresh issue of shares shall be subject to inter-alia, the pricing guidelines prescribed under the Master Circular. The Indian company making such fresh issue of shares would be subject to the reporting requirements, inter-alia with respect to consideration for issue of shares and also subject to making certain filings including filing of Form FC-GPR.

Under the current FDI Policy of 2017, foreign direct investment in micro and small enterprises is subject to sectoral caps, entry routes and other sectoral regulations. At present 100 % foreign direct investment through automatic route is permitted in the sector in which our Company operates. Therefore applicable foreign investment up to 100% is permitted in our company under automatic route.

In case of investment in sectors through Government Route approval from competent authority as mentioned in Chapter 4 of the FDI Policy 2017 has to be obtained by the Company.

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident to a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, subject to fulfilment of certain conditions as specified by DIPP/RBI, from time to time. Such conditions include (i) where the transfer of shares requires the prior approval of the Government as per the extant FDI policy provided that: a) the requisite approval of the Government has been obtained; and b) the transfer of shares adheres with the pricing guidelines and documentation requirements as specified by the Reserve Bank of India from time to time. ; (ii) where the transfer of shares attract SEBI (SAST) Regulations subject to the adherence with the pricing guidelines and documentation requirements as specified by Reserve Bank of India from time to time.; (iii) where the transfer of shares does not meet the pricing guidelines under the FEMA, 1999 provided that: a) The resultant FDI is in compliance with the extant FDI policy and FEMA regulations in terms of sectoral caps, conditionalities (such as minimum capitalization, etc.), reporting requirements, documentation etc.; b) The pricing for the transaction is compliant with the specific/explicit, extant and relevant SEBI regulations/guidelines (such as IPO, Book building, block deals, delisting, exit, open offer/substantial acquisition/SEBI SAST); and Chartered Accountants Certificate to the effect that compliance with the relevant SEBI regulations/guidelines as indicated above is attached to the form FC-TRS to be filed with the AD bank and iv) where the investee company is in the financial sector provided that: a) Any 'fit and proper/due diligence' requirements as regards the non-resident investor as stipulated by the respective financial sector regulator, from time to time, have been complied with; and b) The FDI policy and FEMA regulations in terms of sectoral caps, conditionalities (such as minimum capitalization, pricing, etc.), reporting requirements, documentation etc., are complied with.. As per the existing policy of the Government of India, OCBs cannot participate in this Issue and in accordance with the extant FDI guidelines on sectoral caps, pricing guidelines etc. as amended by Reserve bank of India, from time to time. Investors are advised to confirm their eligibility under the relevant laws before investing and / or subsequent purchase or sale transaction in the Equity Shares of Our Company. Investors will not offer, sell, pledge or transfer the Equity Shares of our Company to any person who is not eligible under applicable laws, rules, regulations, guidelines. Our Company, the Underwriters and their respective directors, officers, agents, affiliates and representatives, as applicable, accept no responsibility or liability for advising any investor on whether such investor is eligible to acquire Equity Shares of our Company.

Investment conditions/restrictions for overseas entities

Under the current FDI Policy 2017, the maximum amount of Investment (sectoral cap) by foreign investor in an issuing entity is composite unless it is explicitly provided otherwise including all types of foreign investments, direct and indirect, regardless of whether it has been made for FDI, FII, FPI, NRI, FVCI, LLPs, DRs and Investment Vehicles under Schedule 1, 2, 2A, 3, 6, 9, 10 and 11 of FEMA (Transfer or Issue of Security by Persons Resident outside India) Regulations.
